$1,750,000 ESTATE

That Sum Had Been Set Apart for Her in Marriage Settlement Made in 1895.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 24—Through the arrival of Lord George Curzon in Chicago became known today the details of the marriage settlement made in April, 1895, when he married Miss Mary Leiter in the Washington home of the late Levi Z. Leiter. Lady Curzon received the incoma from $1,750,000, invested in real estate and bonds, and it was stipulated that if on her death she was survived by her husband Lord Curzon should rereive one-third of that amount, the remainder to be divided among the children, who are Mary Irene, ten years old; Cynthia, seven, and Alexander, three years old.

A secret meeting was held today in the Chicago Club, attended by Lord Curzon, Robert T. Lincoln and Joseph Leiter, to arrange the settlement of Lady Curzon's estate. After the settlement Lord Curzon will go to Washington and a short time later he will sail
