Mary's Catholic Church and a number of other buildings were struck by lightning during a storm late this afternoon. None of the building was burned, but all suffered considerable damage. The steeple of the church was splintered in parts and fire started inside. On account of the lack of apparatus, the firemen had much difficulty in extinguishing the blaze in the steeple but succeeded in getting it under control before heavy damage was done. The cross on the steeple was tipped sideways by the lightning. Mrs. Chas. Holmes was rendered unconscious by a bolt which entered her house on Common Street. She was revived after several hours. A house and a barn at North Brookfield were burned after being struck by lightning during the same shower.

The boy had only been ill a short time with diphtheria, and was a favorite. The funeral takes place at four o'clock this afternoon.

It is said that there is a defective sewer on Lombard street, from which there is considerable stench, and that the health of people in that vicinity is endangered. No report regarding the sewer has been made to the Board of Health. Other cases of diphtheria exist in that district. The epidemic hospital has received a thorough renovating. It was some years since the epidemic had been renovated and the Board of Health promised to take care of any cases that might arise during the time the work was going on in the hospital. It took just two weeks to do the work and during that time there was not once case offered. It is a long time since a stretch of two weeks has passed without a single case being offered for treatment.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Joseph Martin, K. C., of Canada, speaking at the Cobden Club dinner, denied that Canada was protectionist. The Dominion Government if they had not eliminated from the tariffs all vestiges of protectionst. The Dominion Government if they had not eliminated from the tariffs. If the Mother Country offered to give Canada wheat preferential treatment, Canada would not take it. Canadians were too proud to ask the Mother Country to impose taxation on herself for the sake of the gain of a few dollars to them. It was said that England was going to lose Canada. It was too big a country for England ever to lose. The only way the Empire could lose Canada just as the suffragists had been ejected from the free trade congress, but he doubted whether such treatment would be applied to Canada, no matter how badly Canada might act.
