dided to locate. Dr. Kennedy arrived by C. P. R. late last night to visit his parents. The first premonitions of the impending disaster were observed by parties in town about 4.30 p. m. At that time heavy banks of clouds were noticed gathering over the north side of the river, with the wind increasing in volume and generally from the Northwest, but before the deluge of rain and hall had ceased the wind had veered around from northwest to easterly and ultimately to southwest.
With the damage to windows in town as a result of the hail, the most serious injury to property was the demolition of the new exhibition building, which was well advanced toward completion, but now lies a mass of wrecked and broken lumber, and the unroofing of a building at Ruddock's foundry and another at the pulp factory. Sunday, Aug. 23.-At 7 p. m. a most Inspiring devotional service was held, conducted by W. A. Barnes, St. John. At 11 a. m., J. H. Mohorter of Bosn preached an eloquent sermon on "Jesus, the Saviour." The Spirit of the Christ is to be found in men and women who are trying to bring the power of His people to bear upon the world. Is it not passing strange that world. Is it not passing strange that Christ should have such a matchless hold on the world for centuries ? What is the secret of His influence ? It is show not His teaching alone, or His king- Pres
