CAPITALS HERE TODAY 3.15 O'CLOCK

Well, they did it again. The Marathons defeated Fredericton yesterday in a game which left no doubt as to the relative abilities of the two teams at the present time at least.

And they hope to repeat the dose this afternoon when Duggan's Pets come here, let it be hoped for another drubbing. For the Marathons yet have a shadow of a chance to win the N. B. and Maine league. And they have a very excellent chance of climbing into second position and then playing off with the Fredericton team in a series of games. If such series could be arranged in the event of the Marathons finishing first or second, it should furnish the most exciting baseball of the season. And as for crowds the local grounds would be taxed to accommodate the fans who would want to see the games, for there is no denying the fact that the Fredericton ball players are the most popular of the visitors.

The league standing shows that the Greeks have played 61 games and there are 78 scheduled for them. Fifteen wins out of that number would be enough to win the league provided of course, that other teams would wallop Fredericton once in a while just for luck. The Greeks came home last evening with renewed confidence and will go on the grounds today prepared to give the fast capital team the game of their lives. Winckler or O'Connor will start the trouble for the locals, but all five pitchers will be warmed up ready to jump in if required. The game will start at 3.15 and Umpire Rudderham will hold the indicator.

After yesterday's contest there should be a record crowd on the Marathon grounds both today and tomorrow to see what may prove to be the two most important games in the entire league schedule.

GREEKS KEEP ON WINNING, F'TON ON TOBOGGAN SLIDE, REDS DEFEAT WOODSTOCK

Marathons Win Uphill Battle with 5 to 4 Score--Houlton also Defeats Woodstock by One Run--Both Exciting Games.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Aug. 29.—The Marathons worked their way out of the cellar position today by taking a fall out of the leaders, the final score being 5 to 4.

The Greeks gave Dave Brown a warm sendoff in his last game in the league, bumping him 12 times for a total of 13 bases. Jordan did the twirling for the visitors and the Pets found him nine times for a total of 12 bases.

In the sixth inning Brown was hit safely only three times, but then the Greeks got to him in good shape for two hits in the sixth, two in the seventh, four in the eighth and a double in the ninth; three errors being mixed in. It would look from the above therefore as though the proper move would have been to take Brown out.

George Winter led in the day's hitting with four hits and a base on balls in five trips to the plate, while Dutton was close up with three singles. In fielding, a catch by Pat Duggan and O'Brien's work at shortstop were features, while Dodo Fitzgerald's throwing was unusually good.

Umpire Rudderhall worked in his first game here and gave general satisfaction. Business Manager Frank J. Leonard of the Lynn club, watched the game from the press box.

Fredericton broke into the run getting, making the first score in the second inning. Larry Conley drew a base on balls, went to second on Hoyt's sacrifice and scored on Wilde's double to left field fence.

In the third Keaney led off with a single, stole second went to third on Ganley's sacrifice, and stole home when Jordan took a big windup.

In the sixth the Marathons got their first run. Jordan opened with a hit to right field, was forced at second when O'Brien hit a grounder to Brown, O'Brien reached second when Winter banged one at Brown that was too fast to be handled. Fraser was passed and Pinkerton hit a long fly to left field. O'Brien advanced to third base and Larry Conley made an unnecessary throw in an effort to catch him when he was already there. Bobby Conley let the ball get away from him and the runner scored.

Fredericton got another run in their half of the inning. O'Brien retired Duggan on a swell pickup and good throw to first, and then Bob Conley poled out one over Riley's head for a long double. Larry Conley was put out on a fly to O'Donnel. Hoyt hit one down the first base line that Dutton stopped back of the bag, fumbled a couple of times and threw over Jordan's head, when the pitcher covered the base, allowing Bob Conley to score. Fitzgerald hit to left field for two bases and Hoyt was an easy out at the plate.

The Marathons looked good for a score in the seventh inning when Dutton hit past third and stole second, the bag being uncovered when Fitzgerald threw to catch him. McGovern drew a base on balls and Riley bunted to Hoyt who picked up the ball and hurled it to third when he didn't have a chance of getting the man and the other two men were safe. Then Jordan bounced one to Brown who got Dutton at the plate and Fitzgerald doubled up Jordan by a fast peg to the initial sack. O'Brien ended the inning with a foul fly which Fizgerald smothered.

The pets were retired in one, two, three order and then the Marathons won the game. Winter opened with a single to right field. Fraser poked one to centre field. Pinkerton bunted to Hoyt in an effort to sacrifice and "Hannah" got balled up and everybody was safe. Brown fanned O'Donnell, but Dutton banged one to left field, two runs came in. Pinkerton went around to third when Larry Conley threw to second and hit the runner. McGovern sent a long fly to Duggan and Pinkerton scored. Riley drew a base on balls and Jordan hit safely to right field, scoring Dutton, making a total of four tallies in the inning.

The pets went out in a row again and the Marathons made a bid for some more runs in the ninth. Winter drew a base on balls to start with but Wingler, who was running for Winter, who had a sore ankle, was thrown out at second by Fitzgerald when Fraser laid down a bunt in front of the plate. Pinkerton delivered a double to the pines which Bob Ganley almost captured but could not quite reach. O'Connor was coaching on third and Manager Donald pulled him in when he held Fraser at third. O'Donnell struck out again and then Dutton ended the inning with a grounder to Hoyt.

Fredericton made a bid for the game in the ninth inning and showed new signs of life. Larry Conley the first man up was safe when Jordan fouled his grounder. Hoyt and Fitzgerald fanned and the pets chance looked blue. Frank Harrington was called in as a pinch hitter for Wildes and made good with a short hit to right field on which Larry reached third. Brown banged a fast one at Winter that went as a hit. Larry scored and Harrington reached third on the play, went over the bag and Winter claimed he tagged him out but the umpire said otherwise. During the argument in which about all the players took part Brown went to second but perished there when Keaney ended his season by sending an easy fly to O'Brien.

NEXT WEEK'S SPORTS

The Exhibition amateur sports to be held on the Exhibition grounds next week promise to be the best seen in this city for years. The preliminaries will be held on Wednesday and the finals will be pulled off on Thursday. There is an excellent track on the grounds and all of the patrons to the Exhibition on those days will be able to witness the sports as an especial attraction without any additional charge.

So far the entries are large and it is expected that the events will all be keenly contested.

Athletes requiring to be registered must turn their names in to A. W. Covey, or Lessing Bandloe by Saturday next.

The medals for the winners have arrived and will be placed on exhibition today or tomorrow. They are a fine lot of prizes and are well worth trying for. The events will include 100 yards dash, 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, high and broad jump, shot put, relay race, four men to a team.
