A Leap to Death. A FEVER PATIENT LEAPS THROUGH THE HIGH-EST WINDOW OF THE HOSPITAL AND KILLED. A very sad affair took place at the Public Hospital at an early hour this morning. the result being the death of Robert Peney, a patient in the institution. Peney was admitted into the Hospital on Monday last by order of Dr. Wm. S. Harding, the sickness under which he was laboring being typhoid fever. He was taken to the fever typhoid fever. He was taken to the fever ward in the top story of the building and Boss Tweed has appeared and given bail placed there in care of one of the female nurses. He had not, it is stated, exhibited any indications of dangerous delirium, but was at the time of the occurrence this morning fastened down to the bed in the usual manner in cases not dangerous, the constant of the const placed there in care of one of the female for trial. namely, sheets twisted into ropes and 000. passed over his body in such a way as to bind the bands without causing inconvenience. At a quarter before two o'clock the nurse who had been applying cold water to the patient's head again ep
