

examination only, he will be required to take a written supplemental examination. In each of these cases the minimum percentage required for a written examination will be exacted.

The supplemental written examinations in subjects taught by the staff of the school will begin on the second day of the session. In other subjects they will be held at the time of the annual examinations.

In the case where a candidate fails to pass a supplemental examination it will count as one of the two supplemental examinations which may be allowed him after the next annual examination.

Candidates of the standing of the third year will not be allowed the privilege of a supplemental examination.

Candidates who fail in being promoted to a higher year or in graduating will be required to take again the whole course of instruction, both theoretical and practical, of the year in which they failed, before presenting themselves a second time for examination.

No candidate will be allowed his examination if his written answers or theses indicate ignorance of the ordinary rules of spelling and composition.

The fees to be paid by a student repeating a year will be the regular fees for such year.

Students are required to spend the hours of every working day between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the work laid down in the time table.

EXEMPTIONS.

No exemption from any of the regulations of the School will be granted, unless under such exceptional circumstances as may be deemed sufficient by the Council, which must be fully set forth in a formal petition.
