Federal House Will Provide Public Work Says the Speech From The Throne

MANY PROJECTS OUTLINED

The following is the full text of the speech from the throne: Honorable gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: Since the last session of Parliament events have transpired of the highest consequence to the empire and to Canada.

After withstanding with steadfast valor repeated assaults pressed with the utmost vigor and determination, the allied forces taking the offensive in all theaters of action advanced to decisive and overwhelming victory. Upon terms of practically unconditional surrender on the part of the enemy, armistices were arranged and are now in effect, under which extensive strategic territories have been evacuated, guns, munitions and other war material and supplies surrendered on a vast scale, and the greater part of the hostile fleets delivered up to the allies.

A conference is now being held at Paris to determine the conditions upon which peace will be concluded. As the decisions of this conference will be of vital importance to Canada, as well as to other parts of the empire, it is being attended by the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Borden, the prime minister, accompanied by other of my advisers.

In the notable victories leading to the glorious issue accomplished by the arms of the allies, none of the forces engaged bore a more valorous or heroic part than those of Canada, whose achievements throughout the entire war have won imperishable renown for their country.

It is most gratifying to be able to state that, in the final and decisive stages of the mighty struggle, our divisions in the field were maintained at over strength, and equipped in the highest degree with all the requirements of modern warfare.

The appreciation and gratitude of the nation cannot be too earnestly and sincerely expressed to the gallant members of the Canadian expeditionary force, whose sacrifices, sufferings and heroism have played so effectual a part in vindicating the cause of world liberty and civilization.

Prior to the armistice, plans and preparations had been made for the return, demobilization and re-establishment in civil life, after the close of the war, of our soldiers with their dependents overseas. There are now in operation, and while this great undertaking presents, owing to after-war conditions, many difficulties and complications, it is confidently expected that it will be accomplished speedily and satisfactorily.

To Provide Work. Immediately upon the conclusion of the armistice, which necessarily involved the cessation of operations in the manufacture of munitions and in other essential war industries, steps were taken by my advisers to facilitate the readjustment of business and provide employment. Orders-in-council embodying the measures adopted will be laid down without delay.

with such provisions as are necessary, having regard to existing conditions, and providing among other things for effectually enabling women to vote, and conferring upon them the privilege of sitting in Parliament, will be submitted for your consideration.

Your attention will also be invited to bills providing for aid in the construction of highways; for assisting returned soldiers in establishing themselves on the land, and for promoting desirable immigration and farm settlement.

Bills will also be submitted for the promotion of vocational education; for the creation of a department of public health; for promoting better housing conditions throughout the Dominion by loans, made for the purpose, to the several Provincial Governments and for the validation by Parliament of orders-in-council prohibiting the importation and manufacture of intoxications beverages, and the transportation thereof into any community where their sale is contrary to law.

Other necessary legislation dealing with various matters, including pensions to soldiers and their dependants, now regulated by orders-in-council, will be laid before you.

Important Measures, Further important measures, designed to promote the welfare and prosperity of the people in the new era of reconstruction, social as well as material, upon which the world has entered, will be recommended to your consideration. After more than four years of war and notwithstanding the sudden dislocation brought about by the armistice, Canada's industrial, commercial and financial stability has been well maintained.

It is the expectation that in addition to business arising from the resumption of public and private undertaking in Canada, which were suspended by the war, and needed improvements and betterments throughout the Dominion, Canada will obtain substantial participation in the expansion of export trade following the conclusion of the war and the liberation of commerce from the restraints which have existed during its continuance. Steps have been taken by my advisers to promote and facilitate such participation.
