

CONTENTS.

PART I.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
Conquest of Canada by General Wolfe, 1759—Royal Proclamation, 1763—Limits of Province of Quebec—Rebellion of British American Colonies, 1776—Rebellion Becomes a Revolution, 1783—Refugee Loyalists in Canada—First Surveys, 1783-84—English Doctors in Canada after the Conquest—Inoculation of Small-pox—Surgeon Latham—Inoculation Thirty Years Later at Niagara—Surgeons Kerr and Muirhead—Additional Remarks—"Tory Doctors During the Rebellion Allowed to Remain"—"The Exigencies of the Ladies"—Want of Medical Aid in Upper Canada—Number of Settlers at St. Lawrence, Cataraqui and Bay of Quinte—Settlers Under Military Law—Garrison Surgeons—The "U. E. List:" What it Signifies—Fathers of Canada—Council Chambers, Quebec, 1789—The Members—Surgeon Adam Mabane—"U. E. L." Surgeons—Supplementary List—Advent of Yankee Quacks—Oversight of Settlers by Officers	9

CHAPTER II.

First Act Relating to Medicine, 1788—Hospital at Kingston, 1790—Imperial Act—Province of Upper Canada—First Governor, Colonel Simcoe—First Parliament—Duke de Rochefoucault—Disease at Niagara—Marriage by Surgeons and Other Officers—Act to Regulate the Practice of Medicine, 1795—Attorney-General John White—Dr. Macaulay—Robert Gourlay's Statements—Surgeons at Kingston Well Paid—Prejudice Against Doctors—"Magic Charms"	16
--	----

CHAPTER III.

Second Governor of Upper Canada, Peter Hunter—Dr. Hunter—Second Act Repealing First Act Relating to Practice of Medicine—Revival of Quebec Ordinance—Still Prohibition—State of the Medical Profession—Jeremiah Freedling's Letter—Inoculation—Remarks of "Reckoner" (Rev. John Strachan)—Self-made Physicians—Unable to Read—Cure-all—"A Febrifuger"—Sweating to Death—Qualified Physicians Elbowed Out—Letter of "Candidus"—Account Rendering—"Credulous"—Cures by Charms—"Flegbottomy"—An Account with Deduction "for Killing Your Son"—Thrusting the Created into the Presence of the Creator—Toronto Hospital—"Loyal and Patriotic Society"—Medals for the Courageous—Money Given to the Hospital	23
--	----

CHAPTER IV.

Medical Legislation, 1815—Number of Medical Men—Questions to Townships by Robert Gourlay—Answers—Remarks by Gourlay—Hardships of the Doctors—No Money Fees—Free Trade in Medical Practice—Letter of "Veritas"—Sluggishness in Enforcing the Law Against "Despicable Quacks"—Late Act Not Acted Upon—"Quack Spies"—"Brutal and Immoral"—"Emissaries of a Licentious Republic"—Notice by Dr. Scott—Will Prosecute Unlicensed Practitioners—Solo-
--	--