other Ships, or to receive them into their own, or to wait for their being loaded longer than they please. And all and every the Subjects of the most Christian King shall reciprocally have and enjoy the same Privileges and Liberty in all places in Europe subject to the Dominion of Great Britain.

XIII.

It shall be wholly lawful and free for Merchants and others, being Subjects either to the Queen of Great Britain, or to the most Christian King, by Will, and any other Disposition made, either during the time of Sickness, or at any other time before, or at the point of Death, to devise or give away their Merchandizes, Effects, Money, Debts belonging to them, and all moveable Goods, which they have or ought to have at the time of their Death, within the Dominions and any other places belonging to the Queen of Great Britain, and to the most Christian King. Moreover, whether they Dye, having made their Will, or Intestate, their lawful Heirs and Executors, or Administrators, residing in either of the Kingdoms, or coming from any other Part, although they be not Naturalized, shall freely and quietly receive and take possession of all the said Goods and Effects whatsoever, according to the Laws of Great Britain and France respectively; in such manner however, that Britan-
