A medical writer says—"The use of a thoroughly reliable preparation of cocoa should be universally encouraged, and it is the consensus of opinion among medical men as well as laboratory workers that the breakfast cocoa manufactured by Walter Baker & Co. Ltd., not only meets the indications, but accomplishes even more than is claimed for it."

A SMART STREET COSTUME.

Coats of three-quarter length made with a pointed shaping at the lower edge are among the smartest street costumes of the season. This one is made of broadcloth with trimming which consists of bands of the same and little buttons and is eminently attractive while it is quite simple. The coat can either be cut away at the front and made with the pointed outline illustrated or be cut with straight fronts and a straight lower edge as liked. The skirt is nine gored and distinctly novel, inasmuch as the gores in place of being joined by seams are turned under at their edges and arranged over narrow straps of the material, to which they are stitched. Broadcloth, serge, cheviot, all suiting materials are appropriate.

For the medium size will be required, for the coat 7 yards 27, 4 yards 44, 3 3/4 yards 52 inches wide; for the skirt 7 1/2 yards 27, 4 1/4 yards 44, or 3 3/4 yards 52 inches wide for broadcloth or other material with figure or nap, but if the gores need not be cut one way, 6 1/2 yards 27, 3 3/4 yards 44 or 52 inches will suffice.

The coat pattern 6132 is cut in sizes for a 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust measure; the skirt pattern 6135 is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inch waist measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents for each.

A GRACEFUL AFTERNOON GOWN.

Afternoon gowns are exceptionally graceful and attractive this autumn and are made from a variety of pretty wool and silk fabrics while there are many novelties that combine the two. This one shows one of the new circular skirts draped to give a tunic effect combined with a surplice overblouse and the trimming is so arranged as to give a suggestion of the semi-princesse idea. Any gumpie can be worn therewith. In this instance henrietta cloth is trimmed with Liberty satin and with soutache, and satin as trimming is to be extensively worn this season but there are beautiful bandings galore and any one of these could be substituted or any preferred material. For the gown itself every material that is appropriate for afternoon gowns is correct and the skirt can be made in walking or in round length. Among the novelties of the season are to be found silk and silk and wool materials woven to suggest the favorite pongees, and any one of them would be admirable for the design.

For the medium size will be required, for the over-blouse 2 yards of material 24 or 27, 1 yard 44 inches wide with 1/2 yard of silk for the bands; for the skirt 8 1/2 yards 24, 8 yards 27, or 5 1/2 yards 44 inches wide, 1 1/2 yards of silk for trimming, soutache according to design used.

The over-blouse pattern 6103 is cut in three sizes—small, 32 or 34, medium 36 or 38, large 40 or 42 inches bust measure; the skirt pattern 6066 is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inch waist measure.

A Graceful Afternoon Gown.
Over-blouse 6103—Skirt 6066.

Mrs. Malaprop (to wife of busy City man): "So glad you are coming to us on Thursday. I need hardly say how pleased we shall be to see your husband also, if it is only to fetch you away."

"Your reflections do you great credit, Mr. Brainby." "Thank Heaven," sighed Brainby, "I can get credit for something! Ah, my dear friend, I would you were a tradesman."

"You have myopia, haven't you?" asked the eye doctor who had called at the public library to look at a reference book.

"I don't know, sir," said the near-sighted attendant, blinking at him; but if we have you'll find it in the catalogue."

A country parson was one day going his usual round of visiting, when he was stopped by one of his congregation, an old farm hand, who said, "An' hoo be yer darter this mornin', yer reverend?" "My daughter!" exclaimed the parson, rather surprised; "oh, she is quite well, thank you."

"What!" cried the rustic; "quite well! Whv, I heard she had a cycle accident yesterday, an' busted her inner tubing!"
