Snicker: (recovering his com-osure) Saskatchewan is here. They ied the Bears in Saskatoon a couple of weeks ago. If the Bears don't win they probably won't get another free eg ip down East.

Poison Pen: I want another glass ed of Big Orange.

Parson: I still prefer the good old 's days when they used to have Varsity Football Night and everyone went out to Clarke Stadium to see a good rs ootball game.

Snicker: (losing composure again) 3-b-b-but this is good football. We have Garry Smith and Ken Nielsen and Ted Frechette and Maynard Vollan and Maury Van Vliet. . . Strangert: (suddenly coming to life) Maury Van Vliet, you say. Is that the same one who coached the football team back in 1947 when I you saying about Homecoming Weekend?

Chucklehead: It's this weekend. Stranger: (still surprised) Well, I'll be cotton-picked. Are they expecting a good crowd? Snicker: Oh, yes, there should be 3,000 people there if we're lucky. Stranger: 3,000! Why in 1947, when we Played Montana School of Mines on Homecoming Weekend we had 4,800 people out at Clarke Stadium. There were only 4,700 students at the university. Parson: (obviously impressed)

Wow! Ladies' Man: Who are you, anyvay? What do you want? Stranger: I'm looking for a job with the Gateway. Snicker: We're always looking for reporters. I'll take your name. Have you any experience? Stranger: Well, I'm Dick Beddoes. I used to be Sports Editor here in 1947. I've also had a bit of experience as Sports Editor of the Vancouver Sun-Province. Ladies' Man: (setting down his Pepsi with a crash) The Dick Bedwe had back in '47. Guys like Bud does? What made you leave Vancouver?

Beddoes: Well, I got tired of fighting with Herb Capozzi and I thought I'd come here for a rest and take on Al Affleck for awhile.

After all the Phi Delts have a stuffed owl, the Phi Kaps have a stuffed goat and the Dekes are a lot of stuffed shirts.

Fraternally yours, Tony Burt.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Re: BRUTUS I and BRUTUS II Dates of death and causes of death

Brutus I-died at 14 years of age, approximately July 1960 of a com-mon disease of dogs, chronic interstitial nephritis.

Brutus II-died at three years of post mortem was conducted as it was not considered a necessity.

Both dogs' bodies were disposed of through the city incinerator. We do not feel an SPCA investgation was warranted.

Both Brutus I and Brutus II were extremely well-cared-for dogs. We have always found Kappa Sigma conscientious and thoughtful in their care of pets. J. L. McManus, DVM,

South Side Animal Hospital.

To The Editor:

I noticed in your last issue a picture and story on the K. Sig. mascot, Brutus, who died following the (cross-country) race. I think this is appalling.

I can imagine what the dog's diet consisted of since he was living in a fraternity house. What those boys don't realize is that dogs, like
