Time Out -THE BRUNSWICKAN

Red Island

Rockn'reel Newfy style

By SARAH INGERSOLL & SHEENAGH MURPHY

When someone mentions Newfoundland what is the first thing your feet to tapping and hands to you think of? No, not jokes. Ah, well, okay what's the next thing? Friendly people and lively music, right? Right.

If you had been at the Keg last week, you would agree with us that Red Island certainly fits that description. The hit of this year's Atlantic Folk Festival, Red Island Don, Jamie, Sean, Bruce and Derek. Each of these five guys with the exception of Jamie hail from St. John's Newfoundland (Jamie is from St. Catherine's, Ont).

Traditional Newfoundland music is their genre (otherwise known as rock 'n reel); music which sets clapping almost without volition, as you respond to the lively music which they so aptly illustrate.

Haunting melodies of the Atlantic bring to us memories of days gone by.

What is particularly likeable about this band is that they deliver their songs with such liveliness boasts five talented musicians, and obvious enjoyment that the audience cannot fail to appreciate them

Certainly the most noticeable of the group is Jamie sporting his talents on fiddle and mandolin. Feet tapping in constant time with "A female version of 'Cuckoo's childhood up to the point she thought-proding and truly enjoy-

The film is a realistic portrayal

Bibi is astonishingly good as the rhythm, Jamie, at times, broke stage by Red Island did not expect. During the course of the into a full-scaled jig in enthusiastic dissipate between sets. While they response to the music. Even were circulating freely among the though the other members of the the most part, each one sound.

'Rose Garden' and 'Star Wars' patrons of the Keg, we were a personal glimpse of warm band stayed in the background for joined by Don, and became Newfoundland hospitality. engaged in a lengthy conversation contributed his own artistic of ghoulies and ghosties and experience and next time they qualities to the band's unique things that go bump in the night. come to town, we will be sure to Newfoundland folklore turned out catch their show. Why don't you. The friendliness displayed on to be as fascinating as one would Try it, you'll like it!

evening we were visited by other band members each treating us to In short, it was an enjoyable

RED ISLAND: Left to right — Bruce, Derek, Don and Jamie (Sean absent)

the movie

they realized this. For all of you not fo the members of the Sty background, these paragraphs are for yo

NOVEMBER 18, 1977

Cr

The Styx Grand Illusi tour stopped in Frede Sunday night. With St Vancouver based grou name of Prism.

Prism opened the sho

45 minutes of raunchy i which did not really in audience, as this was they were expecting

When I listened to the thought they would be like Yes and many ot expressed the same

After Prism was done, about 45 minutes of in so the stage could be p

Styx's part of the conce thought on Prism: They Canadian groups who a

"make it" seem to thin

have to play hard re anywhere. This is not s

Canadian artists could

Taking a deserved l his National Canadian Hill has time to refle phenomenal success be ed at all levels across t

SRO audiences at ma halls, rave reviews or and accolades pouring his new GRT album "La and his new single When We Touch".

Leaving the theatre, I was overcome with bewilderment, not really believing that the movie I had just seen was the subject of so

It is beyond me why 'Star Wars' One review of the film said has achieved the success and recognition that it has. I went with phenomenon in motion pictures. What I saw was one of the most that one does not have to be able loveable robots, I think I would

'Tain't art, but it's fun." Well that's half true. It ain't art . . . but fun . . . Granted there were parts of the movie which would warm the the intention of witnessing a well each to his own, I guess. absurd movie I have ever been to. coldest hearts. Those, of course, The acting was the worst. Mark were parts with R2D2 and CP30. Hamill as Luke Skywalker proved Had it not been for these two Cinemas is all of this and more. It Deborah and certainly deserves is a truly touching story about a an award for her performance. girl tormented by a fantasy world Kathleen Guinlan offers a and of her struggle to cope with the real world.

Garden", now playing at the change from the gimmickry that Deborah played by Bibi Anders- ed doctor. son is a very real character. A movie about feelings and Deborah has had a difficult struggling with life. It is a realistic,

"I never Promised you a Rose orderly.

Nest' but more honest and less enters the asylum. Her parents manupulative, 'Rose Garden' is a find it difficult to cope up and characterizes 99 percent of the of life in an institution. The trials movies made today." (Howard of the women there and the Kissel, Women's Wear Daily). assaults and brutality of one male deeply moving film and a happy communicate with her.

14) Blue Bayou - Linda Ronstadt (-) Little Records.

turned, all I heard was "Go see Star Wars. It is fantastic . . . terrific compassionate and understanding show . . . best movie I've seen in character as Deborah's determinyears.

able movie.

many rave reviews. Everywhere I to act to obtain the lead role in a have walked out c' movie. Carrie Fisher as the In short the movie was a Princess would be wise to take a disappointment to me, mainly few acting lessons from her because I was expecting much parents.

Musgrave readings

A young poet who has attracted the attention of the Toronto Star, the Globe and Mail. Saturday Night magazine and Quill & Quire, to say nothing of readers across Canada, will visit UNB Nov. 22. Susan Musgrave, the twenty-sixyear-old author of seven books, will give a public reading at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Memorial Hall on the Fredericton campus. Barry Cameron of the UNB English department characterizes Ms. Musgrave's work as a poetry of sardonic wit, self-deprecating humor, intense emotion, mastery of technique and maturity of poetic voice. The British Columbia-born writer draws themes from witchcraft and from Celtic and North American Indian mythology, producing poetry of dark mystery and primitive power. Ms. Musgrave's work includes Songs of the Sea Witch, Entrance of the Celebrant, Grave-Dirt and Selected Strawberries, Gullband, The Impstone, Selected Strawberries and Other Poems 1963-73, and Becky Swan's Song.

A poet who does the under the sponsorship of the astonishing thing of supporting Atlantic Universities Reading herself through her art, Ms. Circuit and the UNB-STU Creative Musgrave comes to Fredericton Arts Committee.

Racial attitudes unchanged revealed that 37 percent of the Even after viewing "Roots", people polled who had not seen thirty percent of the people polled the program believed that the by a group of researchers at the Communication Research Center experiences were similar. Researchers concluded from the at Cleveland State University, felt that the experience of black study that racial attitudes had not slaves in America was similar to changed appreciably because of the program, and speculated that the experiences of other immigrants coming to this country. The the reason for no change might be survey, conducted just after due to the program's happy ending. (Newscript) "Roots" aired last winter, also

The rehearsals for this year's and stage director, Anne Matt-Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "The hews are still hoping that even Gondoliers" got underway on more G & S lovers will turn out for Wed. Nov. 9 at 8 pm. The the next rehearsal Wed. Nov. 23. approximately forty singers who turned out enjoyed a vigorous If you are interested in participatvocal workout after the long ing we invite you to attend the summer break, under the direc- next rehearsal at George St. tion of Joyce Watling. Mrs. Watling Junior High. You'll be gald you did.

In four short weeks turned gold and is curre 10,000 copies per we prepares himself to the western part of his start in Vancouver B shows Oct. 25 and Oc solo performer who c excess of 3000 p consecutive nights as Toronto's Massey Hall 11 and the National Ar Ottawa Oct. 8 and proving to be the success story of the y

The single, which i with Barry Mann, has number one play western Moffat stat Vanc., CHED Edmor Calgary, CKY Wir advance of his perfo those markets plus positions in major mar Kingston (CKLC no 1 (CHEX no 3) Ottawa ( Toronto (CFTR no 6) Lo no 2) and is gaining the two majors of CHU CFGM no 27 (Montre its way to being national number one At time of writing 2 Dan's international pany representatives released "Sometimes Touch" and report stations playing the the first week! Day given the green light