Dear General Clark:

I have your letter of lith. Have been in hopes of seeing Mr. Guthrie daily. He got back last week but I could not see him before leaving. Will make every effort to do so this week.

Am sending you a half-dozen of the Shakespeare address. Will expect you in turn to send me a copy of the one you are delivering over the radio.

Best regards,

Yours sincerely,

General J. A. Clark, K. C.,
425 Howe Street,
Vancouver, B. C.
