

FRANCE

C163119

3) POSITION OF FRENCH LEGATION IN CANADA

The Canadian Government have continued to recognize the French Minister in Canada. It is felt desirable that a bridge should be maintained, if at all possible, between the British Commonwealth and France. So far as they are concerned, the Canadian Government have no intention of altering this position. It would change only as a result of action in Europe itself.