

24-23

July 13, 1939.

Dear Miss Graham:

I have again been long in acknowledging a kindness of yours.

I duly received the May number of the "Canadian Home Journal" containing your article on my mother, and containing, by way of illustration, Forester's portrait painted on the fire-side of my Kingsmore cottage.

I need scarcely say that the article brought me the greatest possible pleasure, and I shall retain it always as a deeply-prized possession.

It delights me to know that you have the vivid recollection of me do of my dear mother, and I am not a little grateful for the manner in which you have given to others
