

D.

ANGES.

a. past 3 aftern.
a. past 9 night.
a. past 3 aftern.
a. past 8 morn.

stration.

the daughter of M.
ster of finance to
aris on April 22,
rough one of the
of France. Her
was educated at
gh different from
that could be ob-
or the position she
ained movements
by her father also
ublic affairs and
n to be whispered
d at M. Necker's,
ould grow into a
ellence she soon
eth year she was
the fashionable
mong the writers
ce. Through the
a marriage was
Baron de Staël
lor at the French
ous that his vast
he hands of one
eadily sanctioned
nobleman. The Himself a man
coming into pos-
sessed it lavishly,
he had prudently
to be swallowed
clear calculating
p—but when her
nature asserted
nursed him de-
he died.

t Revolution in
moil and trouble,
aël's genius urge
ons which then
almost forced her
llen a victim to
shed for a year.
eturned to it in
her greatly, and
but her ideas of
orre and his comprecated. When

18

"IMPORTANT NOTICE."

THE Undersigned, while thanking the Inhabitants of the Western Districts of the City and Point St. Charles, for the very liberal support kindly extended to him since he purchased the well-known and long established business of WALKER & Co., begs to assure them that the low range of Prices for all kinds of

DRY GOODS,

for which the Establishment has hitherto been famed, will be fully maintained in the future.

Winceys, Prints, Grey Cottons and White, Black Lustres and Cobourgs, Merinos, Fancy Stuffs, Imperial Cords, &c.

ALSO, WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S HOSIERY, AND GLOVES IN ALL SIZES.

One call will convince the people of Point St. Charles and elsewhere that they need not go to Notre Dame Street, when they want Great Bargains in Dry Goods, for they are bought and sold for "cash" and not on any other terms, consequently I cannot be undersold by any other House.

Please remember the place, CHEAP CASH STORE,

DAVID LOGAN,

No. 145 Wellington Street, Montreal.

E. P. RONAYNE,

MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

Boots & Shoes,

192 & 194 ST. JOSEPH STREET,

(Chaboillez Square, near G. T. R. Depot.)

MONTREAL.

EVERY DESCRIPTION OF
BOOTS AND SHOES

Suitable for the Season, constantly on hand.