Address of the Catholic congregations of the parish of Teeswater, Hollyrod and Riversdale, to their pastor Rev. John Corcoran...

Rev. and dear Father—We, the Catholics of Teeswater, Hollyrod and Riversdale, have heard with deep regret that also having discharged the duties of pastor to the three congregations of this extensive and laborious parish for close on thirty-three years...

We fully appreciate the truth of that sentiment which was uttered by our great father and doctor of the Church St. Augustine, "The priests are the cultivators of the people who constitute the vineyard of the Lord...

Dearly beloved, I thank you in the name of the bishops of the clergy, and the church at large, for the beautiful and the celebration to-day of their Golden Jubilee. The first time that I had the privilege and the honor of meeting the Illustrrious Father Hecker, goes back probably further than most here remember—to the year 1851.

PAULIST FATHERS GOLDEN JUBILEE

ADDRESS OF THE APOSTOLICAL DELEGATE AT PONTIFICAL YESTERS, JANUARY 25, 1910

The Apostolic Delegate, Diomedo Falconio, expressed himself as being honored and highly pleased to be present with the Paulist Fathers on the occasion of their golden jubilee.

Speaking directly of the work of the Paulist Fathers, the Delegate paid high tribute to the success of their labors in this country.

THE UNIVERSAL SUPPLY CO. DEPT. 64, TORONTO, ONT.

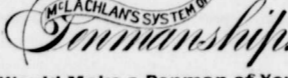

Fifty years may be multiplied during the time to come; that the people may be loyal Catholics always—loyal to the Church, loyal to the Supreme Pontiff, loyal to the good Paulist Fathers who loved them so tenderly...

ADDRESS BY CARDINAL GIBBONS AFTER PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS
