On Thursday, 20th inst., Frank Barry, son of Jeremiah Barry, member of Branch 25 Cayuga, was accidentally killed returning from school, by having the wheel of a wagon pass over him. The funeral took place on Sunday, and was attended by the members of Branch 25 in a body, with Father Barbut at their head. Although only a school boy, there were over one hundred vehicles in the funeral procession. Brother Barry and family have a universal sympathy.

Mr. Leng (Liberal) has been elected in Dundee by acclamation. The Liberal majorities in 1885, 1886 and 1888 were respectively 3,122, 4,691, 3,639. Dun-dees stands to its principles, and is as strong as ever for Irish Home Rule. Mr.
Chaplin (Conservative) was elected for St. Andrew division of Lincolnshire, receiving 4,366 votes against 3,078 for Mr.
Francis Otter (Gladstonian). The vacancy was caused by Mr. Chaplin's acceptance of the office of Minister of Agriculture.
He was elected at the general election by acclamation.

At Dungannon, on the 30th August, a party of Orangemen with drums attacked and wrecked the houses of several Catholics, and at Lynglear similar outrages were perpetrated. Stones were taken from a wall and were thrown through the windows of the house of Jas.
Corrigan. The occupants were thrown into a state of the utmost alarm, and sought shelter as best they could. The party next attacked the house of a man named Donnelly, and severely wounded him on the head. The shop of a man named John Campbell was selected by the Orangemen as the object of their next fury. The windows were smashed, and the articles exposed for sale broken.
Owing to the darkness of the night identification is almost impossible, so that no arrests have been made. The news of the attacks soon spread through the districts, and the Catholic families remained on the alert during the night, so as to be able to assist one another in case of a renewal of the disturbances.

Father Kennedy, of Meelin, who has suffered imprisonment in connection with the present National movement, complains of the espionage adopted towards him by the police. Recently while making a friendly visit to a brother priest, his car was surrounded by police, who followed him from place to place, watched, and when he set out on Sunday morning, for Rockhampton to celebrate Mass he was hotly pursued by a car with armed constables, two of whom also carried long glasses. After Mass he paid a visit to a parishioner, and was still followed by the policemen, who demanded the door if it was not opened. As it was the constables hammered at the door with the butt ends of their rifles. Father Kennedy states his movements during the whole day were dogged and his house was surrounded by cars with police.

At a meeting of the Irish National League held at Lismore recently composed principally of the Duke of Devon-shire's tenants a resolution was unanimously passed expressing regret that His Grace has been induced to take £2,000 worth of shares in the Landlord Defence Association, and strongly protesting against such action on His Grace's part as calculated to alter and embitter the relations between him and his tenants, who always struggled to meet him fairly.

Mr. W. G. Fisher, editor of the Munster Express, published in Waterford, was, on the 3rd ult., sent to prison for fourteen days for having published a resolution of the Stradbally Branch of the National League.

A SAFE LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

In a previous issue we published the nineteenth annual report of the Ontario Mutual Life Assurance Company, from a perusal of which our readers no doubt gladly gleaned that the company still continues to grow in popularity and to maintain its enviable reputation of being one of the best managed, most progressive and substantial companies doing business in Canada. The new assurance written in 1888 has reached $2,518,650 under 1,905 policies; the cash income for 1888 amounted up to $392,074; its assets, securely invested for the protection of its members, now amount to $1,313,853; and its net cash surplus, over all liabilities, is no less a sum than $20,337. The total business done by the books is $10,411,914 under 3,398 policies.

In these days of keen rivalry for new business and in view of the fact that a larger business has been done than in previous years, it is worthy of note that the Ontario Life has, by rigid economy in every department and skill in the investment of its reserve funds, succeeded in reducing its expense ratio for the year 2 1/2 per cent. Policy holders in this company are sure to get insurance at the lowest figures compatible with absolute safety. Its affairs are ably and judiciously managed, its policies are free from all unnecessary and vexatious conditions, its death losses are promptly paid on completion of the proofs, and its dividends to persistent members increase annually, while its yearly premiums "grow small by degrees and beautifully less" until, finally, the policy becomes self-sustaining. This Board of Directors, the Manager, Mr. Wm. Hendry, the Secretary, Mr. W. H. Riddell, and in fact all the officers and agency staff, deserve much praise for the present high standing and prosperous condition of this popular company.

Quebec has added fifteen thousand to its population by the annexation of the village of St. Saviour to the city. This annexation was partially destroyed by fire during May last. It comprises sixty streets, varying from thirty-six to forty feet in width, and contains several fine edifices, especially the parish church, decorated by the Canadian artist, Charles Huot. There are a considerable number of boot and shoe factories in the village, giving daily employment to over four hundred workmen; also ten elementary public schools, besides a college directed by the Christian Brothers, and attended by over five hundred pupils. English, French, history, arithmetic and the elements of natural science are taught there.

"Although we are conscious that every which was at the time crowded. Two hundred persons were killed by the Rich gold bearing quartz has been discovered in the Province of Canton, China.

The discovery was made five months ago.
Experts from New York who examined the ledge report the rock assays from $275 to $400 per ton. The ledge is a mile and a half long and thirty feet thick.
The Governor of the Province, when he heard of the discovery, issued a proclamation against mining. A company of Americans propose to work the mine.
The Estafette, of Paris, Jules Ferry's Justice thinks Boulanger is crushed, but it considers the Monarchists still a seridefeat of Ferry, which, it says, removes the cause of the dangerous crisis through which the Republic has just passed.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM CUMMINS.

We have this week the sad duty to perform of recording the death of Mr.
William Cummins, one of the early settlers of the township of West Wawanosh, in the county of Huron. Mr. Cummins was the respected father of the Rev. Michael Cummins, pastor of Both Well. He was a native of the county of Tipperary, Ireland, where he was born on the 1st of May, 1807, and he was therefore aged eighty-two years four months and twenty-three days at the time of his decease on the 24th September. He came to Canada in 1837 and settled in Brighton. He moved to his farm in Wawanosh in 1858, where he resided till his death. Mr. Cummins was a sincere and practical Catholic and was always a foremost participant in all works of charity, and he contributed greatly to the progress of religion in the parish of Wawanosh. His funeral took place on Thursday, 20th inst., and was attended by all his neighbors, by whom he was held in the highest respect and esteem.
He leaves two sons and three daughters, all of whom are likewise fervent in the exercise of the Catholic religion. Besides Rev. Father Cummins, his son, and the Rev. Chas. Magee, Pastor of Wawanosh, the following clergy assisted at the funeral: Rev. B. Boubat, P. P. of Ashfield; Rev. G. R. Northgraves, E. H.

P. P. of Maidstone; Rev. Father West, P. P. of Goderich. The Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. J. O'Connor, assisted by Rev. Chas. Magee. Rev. G. R.
Northgraves preached an appropriate discourse, in which he referred lovingly to the Christian virtues of the deceased, and exhorted his hearers to the practice of the virtues which should characterize the Christian, and of which the deceased set them the example.

few years ago. The latter, composed of some half-dozen zealous men, began vigorously, but ere long their ardor over-stepped the golden limits of prudence, and they became involved in financial difficulties of no mean order. They were unable to make ends meet, and to their own mortification, they were forced to dissolve and return to their primeval stupidity after a brief but memorable existence. It is a consolation to know that at least one of the members of this defunct community turned his steps towards the threshold of the Catholic Church, within whose pale he found greater scope for his religious proclivities. May these embryo monks of latter days emulate such a notable example!
