the east, in the hope that the change will restore her to health. Mr. Macgurn will accompany them and take in the World's Fair at Chicago, and probably spend the winter months in comparing the "effete east" with the "wild and wooly west."

The W. C. T. U. were very successful in the first entertainment given under their auspices. Dr. George, the eloquent and talented divine of Seattle, contributed a number of readings from various authors, all of which were well received. The musical portion of the evening was furnished by Miss O'Neil, W. Edgar Buck and J. G. Brown.

The Victoria Canoe Club's regatta last Saturday afternoon was a successful affair. The Indian war canoe race between the James Bay's and the Canoe Club was one of the prettiest races during the afternoon. It is to be hoped that at the next regatta given by the Canoe Club the different events will follow each other without the unnecessary delays that occurred last Saturday.

A Chetauqua circle is being organized for the winter season. An effort is being made to increase the membership over that of last year. It ought to meet with success. Founded in 1878, probably no agency has exerted the influence of this society in advancing the higher education of old and young, rich and poor alike, and in stimulating a desire among all classes to cultivate that knowledge which is the nation's best safeguard. The circle now has a membership of 210,000, and is increasing to an extent only justified by the merit it possesses. Mr. H. Siddall will readily furnish information to any person desirous of forming a new circle or of joining the "Fernwood" which is in connection with the Metropolitan Methodist church.

bration committee of New Westminster. The top part of the medals is an elegant gold bar with the word "champion" engraved, and below is a bar representing the handles of a bicycle suspended from the top bar by two gold chains. Between the bars is the C. W. A's crest. The pendant is a twenty dollar gold piece with the British Columbia coat of arms soldered on in raised work. The two medals are the best that have ever been given for a bicycle race in the province, and, as the order has been executed by J. Kingham & Co., good workmanship is guaranteed.
