SIR WILLIAM VAN HORNE

In the death of Sir William Van Horne the Dominion has lost one of its most distinguished citizens...

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

[September 7 to September 13]
The past week has provided little news of the details of hostilities...

In the East the Russians had important successes in Galicia in the vicinity of Tarnopol...

As has been the case for some time, but little news was given concerning the operations in the Dardanelles...

The hostilities between the Italians and Austrians appear to have been continuous...

German submarine activities were reported throughout the week...

The most dramatic feature of the week was a Zeppelin raid on London...

Twenty deaths resulted, and more than fifty people besides were injured...

The Balkan League is apparently yet a long way off realization...
