ALL THE NEWS OF THE TOWN

The Events of the Week Chronicled for Reporter Readers

Elgin poultry fair is to be held on December 3rd.

The sessions of the High Court open at Brockville on Tuesday next.

Miss Nellie Johnston, of Ottawa, is visiting at her home here.

Mr. George Lee, general merchant, of Lyndhurst, was in Athens on Tuesday.

Rev. W. E. Reynolds conducted missionary services in Lansdowne on Sunday last.

Mr. Alex. Eaton is clapping and otherwise improving his repair shop on Wellington street.

Miss Mae Stevens, of Ottawa, is visiting friends in town, a guest of Mr. H. W. Kincaid.

Dr. S. S. Cornell is this week confined to his home with an acute attack of bronchitis and pleurisy.

Mrs. Chas. Barber, of Brockville, is visiting friends in Athens, the guest of Mrs. M. Barber, Church street.

Mr. Henry Rowsome, of Brockville, is in Athens this week, visiting his daughters, Mrs. Berney and Mrs. Kelly.

Mrs. M. Davison, of Smith's Falls, was last week a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wing.

A number of the lady friends of Mrs. M. A. Everts spent a very enjoyable evening at her pleasant home on Wednesday last.

Miss Emily Elliott and Miss Winnie Porvis are taking a course of training in professional nursing at the Brockville General Hospital.

Mr. Melvin Milroy returned from the North West last week, and now occupies his old position in Mr. Wm. Jacob's blacksmith shop.

The Jubilee Singers' entertainment in the high school hall on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Chosen Friends, promises to be a big success.

Communion service was held in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Sunday morning last. One new member was added to the church. There was no service in the evening.

On Sunday several boys indulged their steely-jack proclivities by climbing to the top of the new Methodist church tower. This is just a little dangerous; but, of course, if it were not dangerous, the boys wouldn't do it.

His Honor Judge Reynolds held Division Court here on Thursday. Only four cases were on the docket, and these were of a nature that could be disposed of speedily. Court opened at 9 a.m., and the docket was cleared in time for His Honor to take the 9.21 train for Brockville.

One of the many commendable practices of the Athens W.C.T.U. is that of entertaining at tea, near the close of each term, the teachers in training at the Athens Model School. The event takes place this year on Friday evening next, and is to be held in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

The services of Miss Octavia Tennant, the popular dress maker from Mallorytown, are in such demand here that she cannot meet the wishes of all who call for her. She is evidently entitled to the esteem and patronage accorded her.

Many cheese factories have closed for the season so that the offering on Brockville board last week was comparatively small, the register showing only 455 white and 860 colored. On and off the board the sales totalled 1,620, and the price paid was 12 3/4c. The cable was quoted at 58 shillings for both kinds.

During the last few days many enquiries have been made respecting the condition of our townsman, Mr. J. B. Saunders, various reports as to the gravity of his illness having been in circulation. We are pleased to learn from Dr. Harte, who has been attending him, that he is now making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

Very interesting and instructive missionary services were conducted in the Methodist church on Sunday by Rev. R. Stillwell, of Lansdowne. Last year, from all sources, the Athens Methodist church contributed nearly $400 to the missionary cause. Mr. Stillwell asked that this year fully that amount be raised, and it looks as if his request would be granted, as the contributions on Sunday totalled over $100.

The counties council is in session at Brockville this week.

When requiring rubbers, see Kendrick's stock.

Rev. Thomas Leech, B.A., of Lansdowne, spent Monday night with Rev. Rural Dean Wright at the rectory.

Gentlemen's kid gloves, 50c, 75c, 85c and $1.00 per pair at Kendrick's.

Col. Cole, of Brockville, returning officer in the referendum vote, was in Athens on Monday delivering the necessary papers.

Mr. I. C. Alguire went to Brockville on Monday to attend the counties council as one of the commissioners for this district.

Rev. James Lawson, of Addison, leaves on Monday next for Peterboro where he will conduct a series of meetings in behalf of the referendum campaign.

Residents whose property is adjacent to the common drain running between Main and Church streets are engaged in opening it up and re-tilling it, thus securing a free outlet for the spring and fall freshets.

The work of leveling the ground around the new Methodist church received a big lift on Saturday by a bee held for that purpose. Several willing workers accomplished considerable good work in a short time.

Subscribers to the Weekly Mail and Empire are offered a choice of two handsome artographs for next year. Cash-in-advance subscribers may obtain the Athens Reporter and Weekly Mail and Empire until January 1st 1904, for $1.60.

For thorough work and practical results the Brockville Business College is not surpassed. Mr. Willie Manuel of the Commercial Department has a position in Brockville and Miss Whalen of the Shorthand Department has a situation in Winnipeg.

The Eastern Ontario good roads train has completed its last stretch of road and has gone out of business. The stretch of road at Kempsville was the last one made. Altogether some ten stretches of model road in nine different counties were made.

Owing to sympathy Martha Jones, township of Bastard, had for the charitable and Christian work of the Salvation Army of Canada, the will of the deceased bequeaths to that organization the sum of forty dollars, being the balance of fifty dollars given to them by the deceased.

The Committees of the Ontario Diocese will hold their half-yearly session in Kingston, November 25th and 26th. The 27th and 28th will be observed by the clergy and laity as quiet days. The Bishop is issuing a pastoral in preparation, and has arranged a service of prayer for the occasion.

Arrangements have been completed for the concert under the direction of Mr. W. G. Chadock, organist of St. John's church, Brockville. It is to take place in the high school hall, Athens, on the evening of Wednesday, December 10th, under the auspices of the Y.M.A. of the Methodist church. Particulars later.

Call at T. G. Stevens' and examine his stock of furniture—full and complete in every line. Something new in fancy tables, chairs and parlor suits. I am now ready for the fall trade, bargain days six days in each week, and furniture delivered. Also a large stock of undertaking goods constantly on hand.

The International Buckle Co., of Westport, has begun erecting poles between its factory and the village for the purpose of installing an electric light system. Only 400 lights had been contracted for when the firm commenced work. The Mirror says that the business houses of the village are shortly to be connected by a private telephone system.

The regular meeting of the Brockville Farmers' Institute will be held in the town hall, Athens, on Thursday, Nov. 27th. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. H. G. Reed, of Georgetown, and N. G. Somerville, of Brockville. Topics will be selected from a wide range of interesting subjects. There will be two sessions—at 2 p.m. in the town hall and 7 p.m. in the high school hall—to both of which the admission will be free. The Lyn meetings take place at the same hours on 26th.

Next Sunday is "World's Temperance Lesson Sunday" and the day is to be marked in Athens in a special manner. The Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian schools will unite in a service to be held in the Presbyterian church in the afternoon, commencing at 2.30. The program will include appropriate exercises by the children, and addresses by the Rev. G. N. Simons and others. A practice by the children held on Tuesday evening, in the vestry of the Methodist church, was largely attended. Another practice will be held in the same place on Friday evening. The children, accompanied by their teachers, will march to the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

The Reporter Hunt Club is expected to return home on Thursday or Friday. Men's Overcoats are selling at $5 at Kendrick's.

His Honor Judge McDonald, of Brockville, preached to a large congregation in Christ church on Sunday evening.

Services will be held next Sunday, November 20, in Trinity church, Lansdowne Rear, at 3 p.m. At Christ church, Athens, at 10.30 a.m., with celebration of holy communion. Evening service at 7 p.m.

Miss Maude Addison will deliver addresses in behalf of the Liquor Act at Newboro on Tuesday next, (25th) and at Singleton's on Wednesday. She is also expected to speak at meetings to be held next week at Addison and Greenbush.

Regarding the desire to get free of toll gates the Brockville Times says: If the people of Leeds and Grenville really desire to be free of toll gates, and we believe they do, now is the time for these people to take into consideration the question how they must act with regard to this question. In a few weeks municipal councillors for the townships and for the counties will have to be chosen and if the electors casting votes necessary to elect these gentlemen will plainly express their desire to be rid of these barriers to trade it may be said with certainty that we will have no toll gates in these townships at the end of 1903.

Ever since the House of Industry was established here a number of men and women have zealously labored to advance the spiritual interests of the inmates. Every Sabbath afternoon a religious service is conducted in the Home, and it is eagerly looked forward to and much enjoyed by the aged and unfortunate who are spending their last days within its protecting walls. At present, service is conducted on alternate Sabbaths by Mr. James Patterson, of Athens, and Mr. John Cowan, of Charleston. On Sunday last the service was unusually interesting, and quite a number from the Baptist Sunday-school were present. The song-service was heartily rendered, Miss Bertha Lester presiding at the organ.

A heavily jagged, but wealthy stranger arrived in Athens on Thursday evening per B. & W. and by a free use of his money soon established an era of good feeling among certain members of the Athens' tenderloin. In the case of one individual, good feeling overstepped the bounds—the unusual prosperity proved too much for him—and Constable Brown was called upon to take him in charge. He strenuously resisted arrest, but was in due time landed in the lock up. There he broke the windows, and his yells and profanity disturbed the quiet of that part of the village for some time. On Friday morning he appeared before M. B. Holmes, J. P., by whom he was severely reprimanded for his fault and fined $2 and costs—in all, $5.50.

PRIZES PRESENTED

Before the morning service held last Sunday by His Honor Judge McDonald, at Trinity church, Lansdowne Rear, the prizes recently awarded for Sunday-school proficiency and work were awarded. The successful prize-winners were as follows: Bible class, Miss Annie Maud; Mrs. A. W. Johnston's class, Miss Eva Johnston; Miss Emma Johnston's class, Miss Jennie Ralph; Mrs. Nunn's class, three pupils viz: Miss Jennie Johnston, Ormond Nunn and Jonathan Johnston obtained equal marks.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Mr. David Hutchison, of Escott, met with a serious accident on Monday last. He was returning from the cheese factory when his conveyance was overtaken and struck by a runaway team. Mr. Hutchison was thrown from the wagon, and when friends arrived it was at once seen that he was seriously injured. Dr. Beeman was hastily summoned from Mallorytown, and on examination he found that Mr. Hutchison's scalp was almost entirely torn from his head. Twenty stitches were required to dress the wound. The skull was not fractured, nor were any other parts of his body injured. Just how serious the wound inflicted is likely to prove will not be known until today, but his friends have hopes of a favorable issue.

"Ho, there

Where you goin'?" "Up to Eaton's after a pump." "Didn't know he made em."

"Yes, and keeps all kinds of wood and iron pumps, piping, pipe-fittings; in fact, everything you need around a well." Saw-filing and general carpenter work. Prices right.

Nervous, Weak Men. MEN'S LIFE BLOOD. No Names Used Without Written Consent. W. A. Muir, of Lima, O., says: "I was one of the countless victims of early vice at 15 years of age. The drains on my system were weakening my brain as well as my sexual and nervous systems. For ten years I tried scores of doctors, electric belts and patent medicines. Some helped me, none cured. I was giving up in despair, in fact, contemplating suicide when a friend advised me as a last resort to give the New Method Treatment of Drs. K. & K. a fair trial. Without confidence I consented and in three months I was a cured man. I was cured seven years ago—an married and happy. I heartily recommend Drs. K. & K. to my afflicted fellow men."
