For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it. The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

An old, respected and successful farmer near this centre seots the following notes.

Mr. John Stevens, formerly of Toledo is now on the William Harvey farm, which was for some years run by Mr. Lee and his two sons. Mr. Stevens has harvested larger, finer crops than have been seen on that place for years. No little or big ones to take a step for him. Besides he spent a thousand dollars in stocking the farm. This took time, and a not a furrow plowed last fall. He did his milking much of the time. Now, we call this brave work. We all know what it means-no man can gossip on the road side daily an hour or two and do the above. We have a great many of this class of farmers here and at present the entire neighborhood is enjoying a fraternal, friendly feeling, with peace and quiet

The old impregnable Fort Redan is garrisoned by the same good leyalist as in early days. So uniform and general are the good crops and price of cheese that every body is rosy-cheeked. Even the odd black squirrel and par-tridge, seen only now and then, are larger and fatter than common. Brockville sports of early days may notice. The hardships cheeerfully endured by the pioneer settler are well deserving of record. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goff are "not as well as they used to be," but as cheerful and generous to callers as ever and he has quite a few reminiscences to relate of early days and several antiquated relics to show

NEWBORO

Miss E. Chard, one of Newboro's charming young ladies, and Mr. Fred Thompson, a popular young farm hand residing about two miles from here. were the principals in a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, 4th is st. The ceremony was celebrated at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. William Pearson. After the happy event, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on a short honeymoon visit to Westport and vicinity. Their many friends wish them happiness.

Miss Mason of Elgin, formerly of this place, and Mr. Wm. Canning, for some time the genial driver for R. O. Leggett's livery 'bus, were quietly married in Brockville on Wednesday. Miss Maggie, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. E. Bell ably assisted the groom. The happy couple left for New York where they will reside on a farm owned by Mr. M.

The fair here this year was a success beyond expectation. The gate receipts were the largest in the history of the association and the exhibits were filled in all classes. Men and Women as Eaters. In a small west side restaurant the bill of fare is headed by this notice: "Regular dinner-Men, 25 cents; women, 15 cents."

"How is this?" asked a chance customer. "You charge us fellows 10 cents more for a meal than you do the women. What have we done that we should be discriminated against?"

"You eat more," was the plain re-joinder. "It doen't cost nearly as much to feed the average woman as the average man, but we are the first concern in this part of the town that has been brave enough to say so. Many foreign restaurants have recognized that fact and have regulated their charges accordingly. Bearding houses, too, are well acquainted with the mas-culine appetite and satisfy its longings at a premium."-New York Post.

The Last Red Coats The last troops of the British army have left Halifax for home. Guaranteed to Cure Lame Back or money refunded!

An excellent remedy for Reheumatism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc. Read the following testimonial from man you all know:

Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont. Crosby, Unt.

Dear Sir,—Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Legis Lumbago cure will do all you claim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the dlaease. disease. I may say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results. I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that it's the cheapest medicine on the market. Yours Truly,

JAMES McCUE If your dealer does not keep this medicine, kindly ask him to order same for you as any sized order will be filled promptly. First order, freight prepaid
