UNIQUE EVENT IN BROCKVILLE

Merchants and Newspaper Inaugurate Big Shopping Day—Fourth of July

Most towns now have an annual "Merchants' Day," or "Shopping Week," or something of that character; a special event in the shopping line, when the merchants combine to presents extraordinary sales offerings to out-of-town customers on a special day, or series of days. Excursions are run and other extra efforts put forth to get people to come to the town on that occasion to do shopping in what used to be recognized as an inevitably dull season. Brockville has not yet reached the "Merchants' Day" stage but is getting there, and a good start has been made this season. Several wide-awake Brockville merchants have been planning for weeks past to make the usually quiet month of July look like a Christmas rush.

Goods at unusual prices have been secured, and big advertisements prepared, to be distributed all over the county. A new feature is that the sale bills of several firms will be distributed on the syndicate plan, all the bills being folded together and the sales to start on the same day—July 4th—this making varied and strong inducements for people to come to Brockville on that day.

A monster excursion is going over the B. & W. Railway, and it is expected to inaugurate the unique shopping event with a memorable rush.

Among the firms who have promoted and are participating in this trade stimulator are the Robt. Wright Company, R. Craig & Co., the C. W. Lindsay Co., and The Brockville Times.

There is a good attendance of ministerial and lay delegates at the district convention of the Holiness Movement in Athens this week. The date fixed for the annual camp-meeting awaits confirmation by Bishop Horner.

COVEY—MOEHRING

Rochester (N.Y.) Union-Advertiser
Miss Lillian Moehring of 38 Greig street and Samuel B. Covey of 19 Greig street were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of Dr. A. S. Crapsev, Averill avenue. The bride wore white silk crepe de chine trimmed with white satin and shadow lace. Her tulle veil, cut cap fashion, was caught with lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Dell Puckridge, who was dressed in pink crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of Kilarney roses. William Shaeffer of Rochester was best man.

The groom's gift to the bride was a purse with $100 in gold, and to his best man a pair of gold Odd Fellow cuff links. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a turquoise ring.

After the ceremony a dinner was served, covers being laid for fifty, at the home of the bride, which was tastefully decorated in green and white, daisies predominating.

Mr and Mrs Covey are spending a few weeks at Athens, Canada, and upon their return will reside at Lake Ontario for the summer.

The pre-nuptials included a kitchen shower by Miss H. Raschen, variety shower by Miss M. Diehl, and a sight-seeing trip and dinner by Mr William Shaeffer for the bridal party at Durand-Eastman park.
