THE ACADIAN WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 26, 1891. Local and Provincial. Dominion Day next Wednesday.

Building operations are now booming in Wolfville, and no one who wishes to work need be idle. The firemen had a drill last Thursday evening and made a very good showing for the first public drill.

The rains of this week have been of great service to the crops, and will, no doubt, make a considerable increase in the hay crop.

The trains of the C. V. R. now connect with the late Saturday evening train and the early Monday morning train of the W. A. railway.

While treating his currant bushes with hellebore, Jordan Bowley, of Canada, Creek, inhaled a quantity of powder, and was seriously poisoned.

Potato bugs are doing more damage in Maine than ever before known. The bug is of larger size than usual and is out for business, not pleasure.

The schooner Walter Miller, of St John, arrived here on Thursday morning from New York with a cargo of hard coal to Messrs J. W. & W. Y. Fallerton.

Mr George Breckin, of Upper Canada, has thoroughly repaired the old Harris house, both inside and out. It now looks quite habitable, and it is quite likely the owner will occupy it before long.

Pure "Paris Green" at R. Prat's. We publish this week the summer time-table of the W. & A. railway.

Local and Provincial. Mrs James Duncanson, of Lochartville, gave birth to three children on Tuesday, two girls and a boy.

Hantsport will celebrate Dominion day. Races, games, sports, etc., will be held in the afternoon on nicely arranged grounds.

The new station is rapidly approaching completion, and we understand it to be ready by the first of July. It will be a great addition to the town.

Miss Grace Dean McLeod, of Berwick, N. S., has contracted with the proprietors of the Youth's Companion to furnish them four juvenile stories.

Mr C. R. Burgess' big ship Canada, which is to be launched at Kingsport on the 6th inst., has been chartered to load deals at St John for Cardiff, at 37s. 6d. Mr Alex Gibson will supply the cargo.

There was a new passenger car for the Western Counties Railway, attached to the express last Saturday morning. This car was well finished and looked comfortable. It was made in Springfield, Mass.

Rev. Professor Keirstead is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon. The announcement that the professor is to preach always draws a good congregation. All are welcome.

The Halifax Critic is adorned with a pink cover, which gives it an aesthetic as well as a finished look. The Critic is a good reliable family journal, and takes a common sense view of most of the things transpiring everywhere.

The Church Guardian says: Canon Brock, of Nova Scotia, formerly executor of Sherbrooke, gave an interesting and instructive lecture in St Peter's church hall, Sherbrooke, Ont., on Wednesday evening, June 10th.

Eggs wanted at 12cts. R. Prat. Under the new time table, which will shortly come into operation, the time between Halifax and Yarmouth will be reduced an hour and a half, the train leaving Halifax an hour later than at present and arriving half an hour earlier.

At the Baptist church last Sunday evening there was a large congregation. Rev. S. B. Kempton, of Canada, preached, after which Mr S. S. Strong was ordained a deacon. Rev. M. P. Freeman, S. B. Kempton and G. F. Mainwaring officiated at this ceremony.

A grandson of the Hon. Joseph Howe is evidently quite a sprinter. He started out from Halifax last week on foot and in less than three days he reached Kentville, looking none the worse of his long journey.

Thursday the 18th was quite an eventful day in town. Four runaway teams with three broken carriages and a lot of delapidated fence made things look quite lively for a time.

Mr J. C. Starr and his fair bride arrived in Kentville on Tuesday afternoon express, and were driven from the station to the Keutville Hotel by Mr Jordan with his span of rooms.

Tennis has become so fashionable a game that Wolfville has decided to engage in this fascinating pastime, and has already organized a club.

The bridge over the Grand Dike, leading from Canada to Church Street, is not at present in a very safe condition. The plank's spring considerably under the horses' feet, and a heavy team is liable to break through. The woodwork of the old Kentville bridge has been hauled there and it would not take long to put in a new one, after it was once begun.
