Maritime W. C. T. U. Convention.

On Sunday afternoon a meeting for children was held in the first Baptist church, which was packed to the doors—many being unable to gain admission.
Mrs Dearborn, of St. John, presided.
Rev. Mr. Farshaw gave an address of welcome to the visitors on behalf of the children of Yarmouth.

An illustrated talk was given to the children on the use of alcohol and tobacco, by Mrs Burpee, of Woodstock.
After several other addresses, a song by the children preceded the reading of the pledge by Mrs Todd—who asked for signers. Over one hundred young people responded, and gave their names. At the close of the evening services an immense audience filled the same church.
Mrs Seymour of St. John—superintendent of Evangelistic work in the Maritime Union—addressed the meeting, and gave an account of the work done by the various unions in jail and prison work.
This very interesting address was a surprise to those unacquainted with the W.
C. T. U., by the amount and variety of the work performed. Mrs Atkinson spoke of her own experience in visiting the prisoners. "Buck," who was executed for shooting the officer who arrested him while in the act of burglary, and under the influence of liquor. She said: "When I first heard of his conviction I held him close to God in prayer, but never thought of visiting him. But while the Lord was leading me to pray for him, He was leading me to visit him."

While Buck was raving and swearing and in a frenzy of passion at his sentence, a fellow prisoner told him he had better "and for Mrs Atkinson. He said: 'I'll she is the only one who cares for such fellows as we are.' She visited him many times at his own request, and was with him at the hour of his execution. He professed a change of heart, which she had every reason to believe was genuine. When she told him that Jesus was his friend, he said he never knew that, but always thought God hated him. He told her how he was early left untrained except for vice. His parting advice to Mrs Atkinson was:
"Oh, save the boys! Save the boys!"

The Monday morning session was devoted to a school of methods. Excellent papers were read on Narcotics. Mathew's meetings and Press work. Each paper was followed by discussion, which drew out some valuable hints for workers.
A parliamentary drill and a question box, closed the meeting. In the afternoon a letter was read from Miss Stirling, lately of Aylesford, and former Co-Sept. of Kings. After relating some of the trials to which she had been subjected during last winter she made the following suggestion to all local unions. "That at every trial of a woman some white ribbon sister strive to be present at her examination, and in the court room, and that we petition the Legislature to make it illegal for the trial to proceed without the presence of a woman."

Mr. T. M. Lewis of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, was at this time introduced to the convention and gave an address. At the close of his meeting the maritime convention was dissolved and the provincial delegates separated to elect officers for N. S., N. B., and
P. E. I.

The following are the officers for N. S.: Mrs Charles Archibald, Halifax, Pres.
Mrs Rowe, Yarmouth, 1st Vice-Pres.
Mrs Hibbert, Berwick, 2nd Vice-Pres.
Mrs Marshall, Liverpool, 3rd Vice-Pres.
Mrs Chesley, Lunenburg, Cor. Secy.
Mrs Caldwell, Wolfville, Rec. Secy.
Mrs Barnaby, Bridgewater, Treasurer.
Mrs Black, Dartmouth, Auditor.

A memorial service for members who had passed away during the year was held on Monday evening. Among others, Mrs Jacob Kempton—our departed sister, was noticed, and a warm eulogy given to Mrs W. W. Hay, of Woodstock, water of Mrs Burpee Witter. A high impulse of praise was paid to Mrs Williams, late President of the Dominion W. C. T.
U. After some farewell addresses and several appropriate and finely rendered songs, the convention closed by the white ribbons forming a circle round the Hall and singing "God be with you till we meet again."

A report from Dr. Davison stated that there are a million and a quarter of square miles of territory yet to be explored in the Dominion.

The St. Louis girl wrote: "Don't photo be there. Her Kansas City home replied: 'I will be there; there's no such word as pho!'"

THE PEOPLE MARALED

At the Rescue of Mr Metcalfe of Hornings Mills.

Badly Crippled With Sciatica and an Intense Sufferer for Years—For Two Years Was Not Able to Do Any Work —Dr Williams' Pink Pills Restored
Him to Health.

From the Shelburne Economist.

The completion of the local telephone service between Shelburne and Hornings Mills by Messrs John Metcalfe and W.
H. Mariett, referred to in these columns recently, was the means of bringing to the notice of a reporter of the Economist the fact of the remarkable restoration to health some time ago of Mr Metcalfe, the chief promoter of the line. For about two years Mr Metcalfe was a terrible sufferer from sciatica, and unable to work. While not altogether bedfast he was so badly crippled that his bent form, as he occasionally hobbled about the streets of Hornings Mills, excited universal sympathy. The trouble was in one of his hips and he could not stand or walk erect. His familiar attitude, as the residents of Hornings Mills can "Walked in a Stopped position."

ouch, was a stooped over position, with one hand on his knee. Mr Metcalfe says: "For about two years I was not able to do any work. Local physicians failed to do me any good, and I went to Toronto for treatment, with equally unsatisfactory results. I also tried electrical appliances without avail. I returned home from Toronto discouraged, and said that I would take no more medicine, that it seemed as if I had to die anyway.
My system was very much run down and the pains at times were excruciating.
I adhered for several months to my determination to take no more medicine, but finally consented to a trial of Dr Williams' Pink Pills strongly recommended by a friend. Before I had taken them very long I felt a great deal better, my appetite returned, and the pains diminished. After using the pills for some time longer I was able to stand and walk erect and resume my work, in the full enjoyment of health and strength. Physicians who knew me marvelled at the change, and on my personal recommendation many have used Pink Pills. This is the first time, however, that I have given the facts for publication."

On being asked if the sciatica had ever returned, Mr Metcalfe stated that once or twice, as the result of unusual ex-posure, he had experienced slight attacks but he always kept some of the pills at hand for use on such occasions, and they never failed to fix him up all right. Mr Metcalfe, who is 52 years of age, is in the flour and provision business, and is a good hand to do as good a day's work as he ever done in his life, we may state that most of the work connected with the erection of the six miles of telephone line was performed by himself.
Mr Metcalfe also mentioned several other instances in which the users of Pink Pills derived great benefit, among them being that of a lady resident of Hornings Mills.
The Economist knows of a number of instances in which the users of Pink Pills have followed the use of this well-known remedy.

The public are cautioned against imitations and substitutes and to be just as good. These are only offered by some unscrupulous dealers because there is a larger profit for them in the imitation.
There is no other remedy that can successfully take the place of Dr Williams' Pink Pills, and those who are in need of a medicine should insist upon getting the genuine, which are always put up in boxes bearing the words "Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If you cannot obtain them from your dealer, they will be sent post-paid on receipt of 50 cents a box, or $2.50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.
Y.

Look here, old man, it's no use your trying to unlock the door with a cigarette.
What's that?
You are trying to open the door with Bless me! How strange. Wonder whether I've smoked the key.

Why, warm, said the officer, a fellow Elder George Champlain, was a colored preacher, who exercised his calling for many years in Rhode Island. He was a man of excellent common sense and no little wit. At one time some of his hearers complained that he had been rather personal and severe in one of his sermons.

"When I am preaching, responded the elder, with a shrewd glance from his sharp eyes at the remonstrators, "when I am preaching, I try to shoot right at the devil every time; but if anyone gets between me and the devil, why, of course, brethren, he will be liable to get hurt."
