

MEAT STREWN ON STREETS.

Toronto Jewish Butchers Attempt to Resume Business.

Four Co-operative Shops Are to be Established.

Mass Meetings of Jewish Citizens Held in Three Synagogues.

Toronto, Jan. 13.—Four Jewish co-operative butcher shops are to be established in Toronto in opposition to the so-called "Jewish butchers' trust," which raised the prices of meat to consumers last week. This action was agreed upon yesterday at mass meetings held in the University Avenue Synagogue and the Shaarey Tzedek Synagogue, Centre Avenue, both of which were largely attended, principally by the middle and working classes of the Jewish community. At the former tabernacle $800 in shares of $5 each was raised, of which $150 was received in cash, the remainder to be paid by night, while at the Centre Avenue Synagogue some $1,500 was collected and turned over to a special committee equally divided between the two congregations. The shops will be located on Centre Avenue, Chestnut street, York street and Elizabeth street, the committee having announced that stores had been secured in which to start business immediately.

There was considerable excitement in the vicinity of Agnes and Teravay streets on Saturday night, when the Jewish butchers in the neighborhood, whose stores had been closed for several days, attempted to resume business. When the excitement was all over one arrest had been made. The individual was Max Lerman, a young Russian Jew, of 33 Nelson street, who is charged with being disorderly in refusing to move on. He was bailed out by Mr. James Simpson, the defeated Socialist Mayoralty Candidate. The chief trouble was centered around the store of Caplin & Sons, Agnes street, who are considered the largest Jewish retail butchers in Toronto. Mr. Caplin, son, opened his store at 6:30, and about an hour later a thousand Jewish residents, mostly of the working classes, had gathered, much to the annoyance of customers who attempted to enter the store. Subsequently Inspector Cuddy, of the Agnes Street Police Station, with Patrol Sergeant, Irwin and Policemen Miller, McKinty, Montgomery, Linton and Ward, appeared on the scene.

It was not until the police began to show their authority that the excitement subsided and then the crowd divided off in groups and marched through the streets and visited each butcher shop. Finally the majority of the mob found its way back to Caplin's shop, where hostilities were renewed. Mr. Caplin, son, became enraged, and, rushing to the door of the shop, threatened to use the axe if the crowd insisted on interfering with his customers. At this juncture, two middle-aged women, who had purchased meat in his store, emerged and an attempt was made by some of the crowd to relieve them of their parcels. The police interfered, and the two women, drawing their shawls over their heads, were escorted to their homes. Subsequently Caplin's delivery wagon, filled with meat, came in view, and this was a sign for a general attack. The result was that the contents were soon strewn along the street, followed by an attempt by three young men to overturn the wagon.

Another Jewish butcher wagon was seen rounding the corner of Agnes and Teravay streets, but the driver applied the whip to the horse with good effect, and the mob was disappointed. This rig belonged to Yellows & Cohn, butchers. About 10:30 o'clock the shops were closed and the crowd dispersed. Late in the afternoon it was announced that some of the butchers had offered to reduce the prices to 10c, and 12c, but some of the angry customers, who have been living upon chicken since the trouble commenced, declared they would not patronize the shops. Mr. Caplin stated that the wholesalers had seen fit to raise the prices, and he was also obliged to do so. He declared that he would go out of business before he would restore the former prices.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER.

A Shocking Crossing Accident at Cedar Springs.

St. Thomas, Jan. 12.—A terrible crossing fatality occurred at Cedar Springs, near Bethwell, on Saturday night, when the Pere Marquette accommodation, due here at 9 o'clock, travelling at 40 miles an hour, struck a democrat wagon in which were seated Samuel Crouch and David Tole, elderly farmers residing near Blenheim, and Mr. Crouch's 25-year-old daughter. All three were thrown about one hundred feet, and Mr. Crouch and his daughter killed instantly. Mr. Crouch was almost scalped and otherwise mangled, while the girl had her neck broken. Mr. Tole was severely injured, and no hopes are entertained for his recovery. Mr. Tole was taken to Blenheim for medical treatment, while the bodies of Mr. Crouch and his daughter were taken to the station, and are held pending inquiry. The rig was demolished, one horse instantly killed and the other so badly injured it had to be destroyed.

The party had been to Chatham, and were returning home when the accident occurred. It is believed they thought the train would stop at Cedar Springs, a flag station.

TRIED TO KILL WIFE.

JOSEPH ASHWORTH SENTENCED TO TWENTY YEARS.

After Knocking the Unfortunate Woman Down, She Wrests the Stove-shaker Out of His Hands, and He Again Attacks Her With a Knife.

Cornwall, Jan. 20.—Twenty years in the penitentiary was the sentence handed out by Mr. Justice Anglin at the close of the Assizes here yesterday to Joseph Ashworth, who was found guilty of attempting to murder his wife two days before Christmas. J. C. Hark, Fez, the ulamas, or wise men, were forced to decree the overthrow of Abd-el-Aziz, the Sultan of record, and proclaim Mulai Hafid Sultan in his place, by the attitude of the populace. Dr. Kaye had attempted to pass some of the spurious coins. Dr. Kaye was born at Woodstock, Ont., in 1845, and spent his youth there.

POLICE UNDER ENQUIRY.

Serious Charges Being Heard by Calgary Judge.

Calgary, Alberta, Jan. 12.—The investigation in the manner in which the police department is being conducted, and the charges made against it, came up before Mr. Justice Stuart on Friday. The charges were laid by T. A. P. Frost. They were that disorderly houses are allowed to exist in the city, that criminal prosecutions are compromised and withdrawn with the knowledge of the police, that blind-pigs are allowed to exist, that the Chief of Police uses abusive and profane language, that the License Commission has been interfered with by the city police, that the Chief of Police has been unable to act in harmony with his men and that gambling was allowed.

CROATIAN OFFICERS ON SPREE.

Capture Town Dust Cart and Smash Windows Galore.

Budapest, Jan. 12.—Officers of the garrison at Agram (Croatia), after a midnight carousal, captured one of the town dust carts and set out on a triumphal procession through the town, smashing windows and singing uproariously. The disarmed police and compelled them to join the rowdy throng. A special detachment from the garrison ultimately captured officers and police together.

MULAI HAFID.

FORMALLY PROCLAIMED SULTAN AT FEZ—ABD-EL-AZIZ DEPOSED.

The New Ruler Will Receive Strong Support on Condition That He Abolishes Taxes and Breaks Off Relations With Europeans.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Mulai Hafid, the brother of the Sultan of all Morocco, Abd-el-Aziz, who some months ago was proclaimed Sultan at Morocco City, was proclaimed Sultan at Fez on January 4, the Sultan of record having been formally deposed.

Dr. Kaye was sentenced to two years in Chester Penitentiary. Pending an appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Kaye is confined to the San Juan county jail.

That he rejects the Algerians etc., expels the French troops from Morocco, prohibits access to the interior of Europe, should be allowed to occupy only quarters in the ports reserved for them; prohibits Moorish subjects from placing themselves under the protection of foreign Consulates, secures Morocco's rights in the frontier province with Algeria, and suppresses taxation.

The French Government is greatly wrought up about the proclamation of Mulai Hafid as Sultan and the declaration of a holy war at Fez, France and Spain, acting officially for the powers, must recognize Abd-el-Aziz as the legitimate Sultan so long as the official government remains in his hands. But Mulai Hafid in the past year has shown unexpected strength in the development of his forces, and the present situation means the indefinite prolongation of the state of the French and the Spanish troops in Morocco.

SHOT IN HIS OWN HOUSE.

Queer Adventure of William J. Meek, of Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Jan. 12.—William J. Meek, Secretary of the Winnipeg Cigar-makers' Union, was shot in the head on Saturday night while sitting in his house at 397 Logan Avenue and robbed of $27 which he had in his pocket. The bullet entered the back of his head and ran around the skull, coming out at the forehead and doing little damage. Meek cannot give any statement of the robbery, and the case is a mysterious one. He claims that a man came in the kitchen door and did the shooting while Meek was alone in the house. He will recover.

ROME'S OLD WALLS.

Englishman Joins in Protest Against Their Demolition.

Rome, Jan. 12.—Many public protests are made against the partial demolition of the old walls begun under the Emperor Aurelian, and built mostly between the years 271 and 276, which is said to be necessitated by the growth of the city. On the outside the wall is about fifty-five feet high. It has a facing of triangular bricks over a base of tufa concrete. Its length about ten miles, is already pierced by thirteen gates.

BURNS PROVED FATAL.

Death of Miss Hannah Tinkham, Victim of Oven Sound Accident.

Dorchester, Jan. 11.—Miss Hannah Tinkham, a young lady residing on a farm south of this place, was buried here yesterday. Miss Tinkham was a domestic employed by H. G. Tucker, Owen Sound, and in starting a fire in his furnace she was badly burned. For the past two months she suffered greatly, death resulting from her severe injuries.

TRAMPLED TO DEATH

SIXTEEN CHILDREN LOSE THEIR LIVES AT BARNSELY, ENGLAND.

Panic Caused by Mad Rush for Better Seats at Entertainment in a Public Hall—Forty Other Little Ones Injured.

Barnsley, England, Jan. 11.—Sixteen children were trampled to death and forty others, several of whom cannot live, were injured, in a mad rush for better seats at an entertainment given in the public hall here this afternoon. There was a great crush to secure admittance to the entertainment, and when the show opened every seat was taken and the gallery was literally packed with children, who filled the aisles and were dangerously massed against the lower railing. With a view to relieving this crowding in the gallery the attendants decided to transfer some of the children to the body of the hall, and one of the ushers called out, "Some of you children come downstairs."

Immediately the rush started, and within a few seconds hundreds of children were being trampled under foot. Even those who had seats in the gallery, doubtless being panic-stricken by the screams and struggles of the crowds fighting to reach the staircases, joined in the stampede. The scene was a terrible one, the cries of the injured and the moans of the dying causing the greatest excitement among those gathered in the body of the hall. Police and ushers rushed to the head of the staircase, which was literally strewn with dead and dying, and the most desperate effort managed to drag scores of the struggling children to the corridors below. It was with the greatest difficulty that a panic among the children in the lower part of the house was averted, all of these eventually being taken to the streets in safety. When the rescue police arrived they found the narrow stairway practically blocked with bodies, which were crushed in some cases almost beyond recognition. Scores of children were forced by the pressure from the crowd behind them to scramble over those who had fallen, whether living or dead, and many of the injured children were found later to be suffering from fractured bones and severe lacerations, caused by the indescribable manner in which they had been trampled upon.

Soon after the accident the approaches to the hall were crowded with sobbing women searching for their missing children.

WAS CONVICTED.

FORMER WOODSTOCK MAN SENTENCED IN ILLINOIS.

Rev. James A. Kaye Found Guilty of Having Moulds for Counterfeiting in His Possession—Son Attempted to Pass Spurious Coins.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 11.—Guilty of having moulds in his possession for the manufacture of counterfeit dollars, half dollars, quarters and dimes with the aid of a jury today in the case of the Rev. James A. Kaye, of Oak Park, Ill., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Wheaton, Ill., and formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lincoln, Ill., where the crime was committed.

Dr. Kaye was sentenced to two years in Chester Penitentiary. Pending an appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Kaye is confined to the San Juan county jail. The moulds were found by the preacher who succeeded Kaye in the basement of a house occupied by Lincoln by Dr. Kaye during his pastorate there. Kaye's defence was that he had the moulds to make medals for Sunday school pupils.

It was brought out, however, that Kaye's son had attempted to pass some of the spurious coins. Dr. Kaye was born at Woodstock, Ont., in 1845, and spent his youth there.

A DRASTIC BOYCOTT

Leveled at Indiana Railway by Labor Unions.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 12.—One of the most drastic boycotts and in the opinion of business men one of the most inept ones that was ever leveled at the business interest of a community, is now being enforced by organized labor here. Every labor union in the city has adopted a rule to fine a member $25 every time he rides on a street car, and the rule applies likewise to his wife and children.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

Homestead Regulations

A NY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Provinces, excepting 8 and 28, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person the sole head of a family, or male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for homestead entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency. Entry by proxy may, however, be made, at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

An application for entry or cancellation may be made to the Agent by the Sub-agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land is vacant on receipt of the application the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail.

In case of "personation" or fraud the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim or if it has been granted it will be summarily cancelled.

An application for cancellation must be made in person. The applicant must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for cancellation will be received from an individual until that application has been disposed of.
