

COMDEMN TURNER JURY.

Verdict a Disgrace, Says Geo. Tate Blackstock.

Jurymen Did Not Want to See a Woman Hanged.

Chief of Police Angry—What to Do When Baby Cries.

Special Wire to the Times.) Toronto, Oct. 22.—"A disgrace to the administration of justice." Such are the terms George Tate Blackstock, K. C., Crown prosecutor, used when asked this morning what he thought of the verdict of manslaughter returned by the jury last night in the case of Mrs. Mabel Turner.

"That is pretty strong language to be quoted as using," remarked the newspaper man. "It's not half strong enough," said Mr. Blackstock. "Do you care to say anything further?"

"Only that the only reason they saved her from the gallows is because she is a woman." "Can the Crown do anything about it now?" "Absolutely nothing can be done. The jury's verdict is irrevocable. The Crown can do nothing to upset it. It's too bad but it cannot be helped."

The jurymen who returned the verdict were early on hand in the Criminal Assize Court discussing the verdict with the other petit jurors. Many of them were averse to admitting that the only reason they returned the verdict of manslaughter was because of Mrs. Turner's sex. Not all, however. "Sure, that was the only reason," one of them stated.

The others maintained that the evidence was not conclusive enough for a verdict of murder. They stated that there was no doubt that Mrs. Turner caused the infant's death, but they stated, "No one saw her do it."

Chief of Police Grassett spoke in strong terms of the verdict. "The jury had sworn to give its verdict on the evidence without fear, favor or affection. Did it do so? There could not be a case more complete for a proper verdict than the one against Mrs. Turner. There never will be a better case. Of course it is notoriously more difficult to convict a woman of murder than a man. I suppose that is on account of the chivalrous feelings of the jurors toward female prisoners. Then, again, there is such a strong prejudice in this country against hanging a woman that even if a verdict of murder had been brought in by the jury, it is hardly likely that Mrs. Turner would have been hanged. The judge can sentence her to life imprisonment, and that is a heavy penalty. The next thing we hear of will be a petition to cut down her sentence. I suppose."

"I'm satisfied," said W. A. Henderson, Mrs. Turner's counsel, smiling broadly and refusing to make further comments. "But," he added to the newspaper men, "you see what all your stories did for me."

The rank and file of the detectives and police comment bitterly on the verdict. "If a baby cries now, all a woman has to do to quiet it is to tie a string around its neck," is the stinging satire of one officer.

IS PRESIDENT.

Hamilton Man Again at Head of British Veterans.

The British Veterans' Association met in convention yesterday at Toronto, with 43 delegates, representing the various veterans' associations, two of which came from Providence, R. I. After appointing committees on the Bounty Act, Pensions, Establishment of a Soldiers' Home in the Dominion, and Refusal of Ontario Government to grant certificates to the Binbrook battalion after land had been selected, the convention adjourned for one hour. On resuming the respective committees made their reports. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John Gardner, Hamilton. Second Vice-President, Col. Collins. Third Vice-President, Col. Coombes. Chaplain, Canon Spence. Secretary-Treasurer, William Devine, Hamilton.

It was decided that the next convention be held in Brantford on June 15, 1910. The Secretary was instructed to write Mrs. Fessenden with regard to her gift to the convention and veteran at large of Trafalgar badges, which were worn last night at the parade of veterans in Toronto. All delegates were instructed to inform their respective associations to turn out in force on June 6 next year at the unveiling of the Soldiers' Monument at Stoney Creek, Brantford.

The convention closed with singing "God Save the King." Thanksgiving Overcoats.—"I want to make a quick turn-over of all my overcoats in overcoats, if you have the nerve to tackle it," said a prominent clothing manufacturer last August. "Out with it," said Tobey, of the 2 T's. If you will agree now (this was in August) to take all the fall and winter overcoats in overcoats we have on Oct. 15th, I will give you all the overcoats made to retail at $12.50, $14 and $16.50, a few higher, so you can sell them for $9.95. How many will I have to take? The man staggered Mr. Tobey, perhaps 500, 1,000 or 2,000. To make a long story short, we signed the contract, knowing that the people of Hamilton who had backed us nobly in the 2 years since coming to Hamilton would not fail us in a deal like this. We closed the deal, the overcoats arrived Oct. 15th and go on sale to-morrow for $9.95, just when you want them. Every overcoat a spic-span new fall style, all fine-tailored. See large ad for further particulars, and be on hand to-morrow morning at 8 to share in the greatest of all overcoat sales. The 2 T's, Trudell & Tobey, 59-52 James street North, Hamilton, Ont.

NOTICE. The optical business of Dr. Maurice S. Taube, over Hennessey's drug store has been removed to 18 James street North. The Tail-Down Optical Co. having taken it over. Dr. Taube having left the city.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

The body of David Hutton has not yet been found. He was drowned, it is believed, on Oct. 12, and usually it is only nine days before a body floats. It is thought the body may be entangled in the weeds, which are very thick in the bay just now.

—Mrs. A. Christina Fessenden was a welcome visitor at Charlton avenue school on Thursday, the anniversary of Trafalgar. Ever faithful to her patriotic mission, she addressed the children on Nelson's famous signal to the fleet. The short, earnest and practical address was much appreciated by the pupils and teachers.

—This morning a bicycle was left starting on the west side of James street, near King street, and an ice wagon ran over the front wheel, badly damaging it. As the owner did not put in an appearance to claim the bicycle, it was placed in a nearby alleyway by a policeman who was passing.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Mitchell occurred this morning at her residence, 296 John street north. She leaves besides her husband, three daughters, Mrs. J. Foeter, Point Edward, Mrs. P. McQuillan, and Mrs. H. Halliday, of this city; three sons, Harry, Winnipeg; John and Coulson, of this city. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock to Hamilton Cemetery.
