LONDON, April 30.--The trial of Burke, Shaw and Oasev, for treason and felony, in being concerned in the Fenian attack on Chester Castle, was resumed in the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday. A Mr. Keylock, the proprietor of a gunshop in Birmingham, was sworn, and testified that he sold to Burke in Decomber, 1863, a quantity of onps and pistols. He also swore that 500 rifles were hought by Burke of Mr. Hill, together with moulds for bullets, to the amount of two thousand pounds. Mr. Hill gave evidence concerning that of Keylock, stating that Burke represented to him that the arms purchased of witness were for use in South Amorias. The trial will probably occupy several days.
