Levis at once will find a boat awaiting them and may proceed immediately to the I. C. R. Station. The others will have six hours in which to view the churches, convents and other monuments of the historic old city. The magnificent view to be obtained from the "Esplanade" will amply repay one for the trouble of scaling the heights.

THE HOME JOURNEY. The pilgrimage train will leave Levis at 7 p. m., Wedne day, reaching Campbellton at 6 a. m., and Monoton at 1 p. m. on Thursday. It is needless to say that the return slould be made with as much recollection and piety as the journey to St. Anne. The religious character of the pilgrimage is to be pre-served throughout.
