C.L.A. ANNUAL MEETING.
Toronto, Ont., March 25.—The twenty-third annual meeting of the Canadian Lacrosse Association was held this evening. Oscar Eby, of Hespeler, was elected president. The principal work was the establishing of a senior amateur C.L.A. series with residence race, the same as in the other series, while in the juvenile series the game will be twenty players instead of ten. There will be no judge of goal at the meeting. The financial statement showed a prosperous state, having a balance of $435.00.

LUKE LEONARD'S RECORD.

Luke E. Leonard, ex-champion Irish-Bulgarian player, who broke the Canadian record at the Olympic Bowling Alley and Billiard parlor on Tuesday evening last, was the champion English billiard player of Ireland in 1903, and holds the gold medal for that achievement. The game on Tuesday evening was commenced without any idea of making a record and was played with Henry Andrews, who at that time held the record for this city. The run of 112 was made and as the count was piled up the interest of the on-lookers increased. The player was seen to be nervous, and at the 113th count he missed and the run was broken.

THE TURF.

The entry list is open for the Futurity race to be run at the Edmonton Exhibition in 1912. These races are open only to colts that were born in Canada in the year 1910. The races will be held on beats two out of three. American trotting rules will govern the races. The entrance fee for this race is $60, and the payments are as follows: $10, June 1st, 1910; $20, December 1st, 1910; $20, September 1st, 1911; $10, before the race, 1912.

JIMMY POTTS WINS BOULDER.

Calgary, March 25.—In a fifteen round bout yesterday, a Calgary Jimmy Potts won the division. Jimmy was very clever and at times almost too clever to suit the judges. Most of the evening he blocked and blocked all the hammer punches that were directed towards him, but did very little fighting. There was a good preliminary. The contest was pulled off under the auspices of the Edmonton Athletic Union. A crowd of 1500 was present. Jimmy was very clever and at times almost too clever to suit the judges. Most of the evening he blocked and blocked all the hammer punches that were directed towards him, but did very little fighting.

JEFF THE ATHLETE NOW.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 25.—Jim Jeffries returned from his trip to New York and active, ready, according to his own frank statement, to fight within the next few weeks. The chief thing that Jeffries has in mind is to make known his plan of attack and to let his friends and his opponents know that he is ready to fight. Jeffries has been in California for seven or eight years ago he is now in California.

TICKETS SELLING FOR FIGHT.

Pittsburg, March 25.—Tickets for the Jeff-Johnson fight in July at Prince Rupert sold fast. The war-frenzied city feared that there might be speculation in the tickets. There were 100,000 tickets sold in the city. The tickets are selling for 50 cents each. The tickets are being sold at a rate of 50 cents each.

AN IDENTIFICATION BUREAU.

To Be Established in Connection With Dominion Police.
Ottawa, March 23.—An identification bureau for criminals will shortly be established by Dominion government in connection with the Dominion police. This bureau will be a part of the Dominion police. It will be a bureau for the identification of criminals. It will be a bureau for the identification of criminals.

TO INPECT G.T.P. TERMINALS.

Winnipeg, March 23.—E. J. Chamberlain, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, will go to Prince Rupert early next month to inspect the progress of the work there. It is expected that while there he will decide on the location of the station, machine shop and roundhouse.
Track laying was started last week on the completed grade around the island at the big locomotive yard. It has been standing idle there for the last three months has now got several miles of track to run on. The track laying is being done by hand until a track laying machine arrives from the west coast.
