House Cleaning.

The annual return of this distressing and most contagious condition is now near at hand. What can be done towards reducing its horrors to suffering manhood? One thing should occur to you, that is to see that those books that are piled up in back rooms, on tables and mantels and spelling by exposure should be housed in dustless elastic, sectional, economical bookcases of the famous

St. Bon's Ladies Association.

The quarterly meeting of the St.
Bon's Ladies' Association was held in the Aula Maxima on yesterday afternoon. A large number of members were present, and many new ones were admitted. The President, Mrs.
P. C. O'Driscoll, spoke of the highly satisfactory results of the "Irish Night" for boots for the poor, nearly a hundred pairs of women's and children's boots being distributed. A vote of thanks was passed to the ladies and gentlemen who so generously gave their talents, thereby making it such a grand success. The President also urged the Association to make a big effort to increase the membership. A resolution of sympathy to Mrs. Otto Emerson on the death of her husband, was also recorded. Preliminary arrangements for the annual "Sports Day" were made, matters to be finalized at a meeting to be held sometime in June, and until then the meeting adjourned.

Royal Battle Leaders.

In this country no king has led his troops in person since Dettingen, where George II's narrow escape was a dash and successful commander, and the Royal Princes played their part in the Franco-German War. In the present case the infringities of King Peter and the age of the Austrian Emperor are likely to preclude any idea of very active service in either case, but the heirs of both monarchs will certainly be in the field, and the Austrian generalissimo is an Archduke. The Kaiser is at the head of the German army, at least in theory, and his sons will be engaged with the various Princes of the Confederation, while there are at least two Royal Princes with the Navy. It is long since a reigning Sovereign was slain in battle.

When Prussia beat Austria the present Duchess of Connaught's father was a dashing and successful commander, and the Royal Princes played their part in the Franco-German
War. In the present case the in-
clude any idea of very active service

The Lieut.-Col. Commanding has received the following communication from Headquarters, and ordered the same to be placed on record:—

March 25th, 1915.

Field Marshal Lord Grenfell, Gov.
and Commandant of the Church Lads' Brigade, desires to express to Col.
Rendell, the officers and N. C. O's and lads of the Nid. Regiment, his great satisfaction at the splendid response which the C. L. B. has made to the Country's call in sending so many of its members to the Nid. Contingent of the Imperial Army. He is convinced that they will uphold the best traditions of the Church Lads' Brigade in a worthy manner, and wishes the Nid. Regiment every success in the future.

The Lieut.-Col. Commanding has been pleased to approve of the nomination of Jas. Gardner Hodder to the rank of Second Lieutenant, pending confirmation from Headquarters, and to be attached to E. Co.

been pleased to approve of the appointment of Sergt. Morris as Assistant Bandmaster.

Excellent music was rendered during the evening by the Battalion Band and the proceedings closed with the National Anthem.

John Bunny Plays Baseball

At Nickel Theatre To-Day.

This evening's entertainment is up to the standard maintained by the Nickel Theatre. There are two two-part films which are among the best ever seen in St. John's. In one:
"Hearts and Diamonds" John Bunny is seen playing baseball. This is the first time we have had the pleasure of seeing him at the popular game.
"The Struggle Everlasting" is a powerful melo-drama, and one of the most exciting seen for sometime.

"Slippery Slim" is a comic and
"So Shines a Good Deed" a western story.

The children's matinee takes place to-morrow afternoon; extra pictures will be shown and the little ones should be early.
