Gallipoli Veterans

. Return. By yesterday's express Lieuts. Ern nd Max Churchill returned on furough after an absence of close on wo years. They were met at the staon by the ladies of the Women's Paiotic Reception Committee, who exended a hearty welcome home to the wo brother officers. They were then aken by automobile to Government louse where in the absence of His excellency, Sir Joseph Outerbridge elcomed them home on hehalf of the ple of Nfid. As already stated in he Telegram a few days ago, both are dallipoli herces and won their promoion as officers step by step from the ranks. Lieut. Ern was wounded in the nkle a few days after going in the on the Peninsula and was ttack on Caribou Hill, and was shortas then sent to different hospitals at Malta, Sicily and England and was only released a short while ago, when ie was granted two months' furlough. Lieut. Max contracted dysentery at Gallipoli and on reaching England was placed in Wandsworth Hospital, where he was confined for several iths. A few days before the big rive he was ordered to France in nmand of a detachment of "Ours." out was not brivileged to take part in he famous charge, having to be conent with dolug reserve work. On refurning to headquarters in England he was granted furlough, and leaving with his brother he crossed to Quebec and from thence by rail and boat to st. John's. They report seeing Lieuts Len and 'Bob' Stick doing well. The ormer is now attached to the depo Ayr, having fully recovered from ils gunshot wound in the head. The tter is still confined to hospital sufforing from a fractured leg. Second teut. Ralph Herder is now at Kin g escaped with a slight wound on July 1st. Lieut. Bert Dicks is also geting along nicely. The officers men ioned are lifelong friends and schoo
