Forty-One Years in the Public Service—The Evening Telegram.

S. A. Officers Welcomed.

Methodist College Hall Scene of a Pleasant Function.

The new Territorial Officers of the Salvation Army were publicly introduced and formally welcomed to St. John's last night. The ceremony was at the Methodist College Hall and a large gathering attended. On the platform besides the Army officers, were His Excellency the Governor, Captain Hamilton, P.S., Hon. the Prime Minister, R. A. Squires; Hon. W. W. Halfyard, H. W. LeMessurier, C.M.G. Staff-Captain Thompson acted upon His Excellency, who in introducing Colonel Martin intimated that he had pleasure in introducing Mrs. Martin as well, as he believed her work would be of great assistance to the Colonel. He then referred to the splendid effort of the Salvation Army and said that he was of the opinion that the Army meant for it to be of service to humanity, and expressed the hope that the Army would unite with the other city churches and organizations in the matter of helping out any and all of the causes of God. He bespoke for Colonel and Mrs. Martin a successful term in Newfoundland.

Colonel Martin replied for himself and Mrs. Martin and thanked His Excellency and the people generally for their very warm welcome, as nothing but kindness and whole-heartedness had been tendered them since they left the "4" Country. He then referred to his coming and added that he would be at the service of the people who needed him and his wife. Before leaving Etanland he had a conference with Newfoundland's High Commissioner, Sir Edgar Bowring, and Lord Morris, both of whom intimated to him the wide scope of the Army here as well as the really goodly body of co-workers there was to be found. Sir Edgar also referred to the very successful "drive" that had recently terminated, which the Colonel said he was pleased to hear of. He understood the site was now under consideration for the new Home and in a couple of months building work would be started. He then referred to his Christian experience, being converted at the age of 19 in a little Methodist Church in Devon. Some years later he met up with the Army and desired to enlist in its ranks, which he eventually did. He has a brilliant career as an officer having served on the continent for 22 years—9 years in Switzerland, 3 in Sweden and 10 in Germany. The Colonel touched on German Militarism and said that he had breathed the very air of it during that time, and his son only 19 years of age, had paid the Supreme Sacrifice in France as a result of it. But he believed that when the German people are wide awake enough to see their true position, the world and civilization would put on a new aspect. Again he thanked the Salvation Army folks and friends for their kind welcome.

Hon. R. A. Squires was the next speaker and after welcoming the Colonel and Mrs. Martin, predicted for them a very successful tenure of office. Referring to the world-wide Salvation Army, the Premier said he knew from experience that the Army was doing a good work in Newfoundland and also that he knew of some excellent work being done in cities like New York, Boston, Montreal, etc., and believed that their experience in Newfoundland would be an inspiring one.

Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, C.M.G., spoke in the unavoidable absence of Rev. Dr. Jones and represented the Church of England community, and welcomed the new leaders and intimated that in the past the Salvation Army had got to some of the remotest parts of the Island where the other clergy could not, and if there was a continuance of this it would be an upward movement in the life of the Army. He wished them every success in their new appointment.

Adjutant Tiller, Y.P. Secretary, then read two telegrams from Commissioner Richards, Toronto, and Commandant Hiscock, Grand Falls, respectively, congratulating the Army on creation of Sub-Territory and welcoming the Colonel and his wife to our Dominion. After which the meeting was concluded. The united bands of the Salvation Army supplied music during the evening.

With Lady Horwood in the chair, last Saturday afternoon an instructive address on Civic Affairs was given by Mayor Gosling to the members of the Ladies' Reading Room. That Mr. Gosling has the City's welfare at heart was very evident from the manner in which he dealt with his subject. After a brief account of the way in which our Civic Affairs have been managed in the past, Mr. Gosling demonstrated that although much has been done to improve the condition of things recently, there are many loopholes by which former abuses might easily creep in again. Knowing that all the world over the influence of women is rapidly becoming recognized as a valuable asset in civic affairs—the members of the Club took special interest in Mayor Gosling's subject, as was evident by the questions put at the conclusion of his speech.

Lady Horwood spoke appreciatively of Mr. Gosling's kindness in favouring the Ladies' Reading Room with so informative an address, after which Mrs. A. Macpherson proposed a hearty vote of thanks, which was seconded by Miss Furlong. As usual, afternoon tea, kindly provided by Mrs. A. Macpherson, brought the meeting to a pleasant close.

BOLD BOY BANDIT.

NEW YORK, March 4. Tony Diadito, 14 years old, is said by the police to have treated Brooklyn last night to a trolley car "hold up" in true Wild West style. The youngster, according to the police, stopped the car by firing three shots. The passengers were panic stricken when the boy leaped out of the darkness into the light waving his gun, but before he could clamber aboard a special officer attracted by the shooting placed him under arrest.
