THE BAYTIST BAZAAR.—Things are flourishing at the bazaar to-day, and the influx of people will, no doubt, be good for business. The bazaar continues this evening. Last night the receipts were beyond what was expected. Much straw-berries and cream was disposed of also, and there is plenty more on haud for this evening.

A match game of the National Canadia MISSING.—On Wednesday evening a young man drove a flock of abont sixty sheep down to Alma, and pastured them for the night, subsequently hiring a horse and buggy from Mr. Johnston of the Crown Hotel. On Thursday morn-ing the sheep were missing and the horse was. not returned as promised. Mr. Johnston and a constable went to look on the stave ones.
