The longest distance that a shot has been fired is a few yards over fifteen miles, which was the range of Krupp's 130-ton steel gun, firing a shot weighing 2,600 pounds. The 111-ton Armstrong gun has an extreme range of Sourteen miles, firing a shot weighing 1,300 pounds, and requiring 960 pounds of powder. These guns, however, proved too expensive, being unable to stand firing 100 times, and their manufac-ture has practically been abandoned. 22-ton Armstrong gun hurls a solid shot for a distance of twelve miles, and the discharge of the gun cannot be heard at the place where the ball strikes. A practice game of Association foot-ball was played on the asylum grounds on Saturday afternoon between the asylum and Militar, School clubs, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 4 to 2, the asylum men getting three straight goals before halftime was called, and after resuming play securing one more goal and the Military School two. The game was heartily entered into by both teams, and was good practice for them before entering the league championship games. Mr. Artheur Sippi acted as Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons met three weeks ago and came to an apparent agreement to fight for the heavy-weight championship of the world and $10,000 a side, they are today no nearer a match than they were six months ago, although they both have $2,500 a side posted as a first deposit to fight. Corbett has not turned up to sign the articles. There is a fact, his winning shot was unlooked dispute, also, as to the amount of the for, and due entirely to Crabb's overstake to be fought for.

INTERNATIONAL RUNNING MATCH. Twelve thousand persons assembled on the grounds of the Royal Dublin Society at Ball's Bridge Saturday to witness the three-mile running contest (mentioned in Saturday's Advertiser) for the international professional championship, between Thomas P. Conneff, the Irish-American sprinter, and Frederick E. Bacon, the cham-pion of England. The turf was heavy from recent rain. The men started at a slow pace, and finished the first mile in 5:13. It was evident long before the mile was finished that Conneff was going very badly, and after running 300 yards beyond the mile he was dead beat and collapsed completely. As he sank to the grounds attendants ran to him and carried him from the field. Bacon kept on, and finished the three miles in 15:29 3-5.

SHEERE VS. CRABB. The afternoon game on Saturday as the keenest yet, the score being the at several times, and very little lead for either at any stage. Sheere plays the best scientific pool that has en seen at the tournament, and it is not owing to lack of knowledge of the game that he is not nearer the top, but more, perhaps, to physical inability to handle his cue with dexterity and force at times when these qualities would mean a direct advantage by breaking up a frame, and gaining good positions. Mr. Sheere is in poor health, and it is only by 'sheer" pluck that he continues in the tourney, and finishes each game scheduled for him. His games so far have been model exhibitions of cool generalship and good play. Mr. Sheere last year beat the champion of California, Morris Aschner, by a score of At Detroit on Saturday m an Association football game, Seaforth's team defeated the Detroits by 3 goals day, and certainly had the favor of the table on his side, but though a lose scorer all through, he lacked

With four balls up in the last rack, and only two to finish, Crabb had an easy side cut to No. 6 pocket, with good position following for No. 4. It looked too easy to require judg-ment, and to this fact he owes his defeat, for with a careless drive he hit the corner of the pocket, the ball rolling back and leaving an easy shot for Barrows, who only required one. The entire game was a good one, as can easily be judged from the detailed score:

THE QUAKERS LOOK LIKE SURE WINNERS.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5 .- The Philadelphia cricketers finished their first inning with the Australians for a total of 282 runs, 161 more than the visitors put up in their first attempt. The 'Kangaroo Statesmen" then went in for their second trial, and when stumps were drawn Saturday evening they had scored 21 runs for the loss of two wickets, Iredat and Darling, their best bats. With these cracks out of the way, it now looks as if the home eleven were sure winners.

Dr. Conan Doyle won the cricket match between the Authors' Club and the Press Club in London almost by himself, making 101 runs to 82 by the whole opposite side. Among the authors on his side who were not called upon to bat were J. M. Barrie and Frankfort Moore.

MISDIRECTED. Boston Transcript.

It is doubtful if the attempted use of a language by people who do not know it even aroused more amusement than it did in a big Boston china store on the recent receipt of a consignment of goods from Germany. A representative of the house had ordered in that country a variety of goods, and among them a lot of the cups which are beautifully labeled, "To My Brother," "To a Friend," and so on through the list of human relation-ships. He had ordered with the rest a lot of mustache cups. They were well and duly made, but great was his astonishment, when the consignment arrived to find the greater number of the cups so contrived to protect the beverage against the masculine hirsute adornment, labeled thus: "To My Sister," "To My Mother," "To My Wife," "To My Betrothed."
