London, March 24.-The afternoon newspapers here bitterly criticise the action of the United States Senate in the case of the arbitration treaty. The St. James Gazette says: "The Senators carried their point with that refinement of pettifoggers' cunning which enables certain minds to gain their end without expressing it. The amended treaty not only does not improve the present conditions, but it renders arbitration practically impossible, as while now there is no obstacle in the way of an agreement to arbitrate, hereafter it must be approved by a two-thirds majority of that body, in which the parties are generally pretty evenly divided."
