weather conditions, an immense crowd and a programme of sports that was intensely interesting PACKEY M'FARLAND from start to finish, made the regatta of the Thames Boating Club held at Springbank yesterday afternoon a huge success. Both sides of the river bank for more than a quarter of a mile Chicago Lightweight Acepts Challenge were lined with thousands of spectators, and the various races were greatly enjoyed. Many of the spectators had little idea of the magnitude of the fleet of boats that is now on the Thames, and not a little surprise was expressed at the trim and natty appearance of the gasoline launches, A great many of the covered boats had festoons of evergreens twined about them, and looked exceedingly pretty. Hundreds of young men and negotiations off. women were present in rowboats and ingly lively appearance
