closing of Season Here Marked by Three Victories From St. Thomas-However, Ottawa Beat Peterboro, and Shag Cops the Bunting.

The London Tecumps, and the St. Thomas Saints spent Labor Day most appropriately. They labored from morning until evening and never before was there so much Canadian league baseball played over in Tecumseh park in one day. It was simply one inning after another with just a little jump off for meals. The London Tecumps labored most effectively. They won all three pastimes, one in the morning and two in the afternoon, which is quite a lot of winning to do all in one day. But what good did it do? Not a bit of good. The Ottawa Senators, ably abetted by Mr. Buck Freeman and the weatherman, walked off with the bunting by winning one game from Peterboro, and having the second one called at the end of the second inning, on accout of a cold draught blowing across the field. However, there are those who suspect that the real reason was because Mr. Shettler was out there pitching against the Shagmen in the second game, and Mr. Shaughnessy got a severe chill in his feet. Mr. Schettler is just the person who would have sent that pennant to London. The Final Blaze.

Harry Howick, who used to be such an effective person in these parts, was on the mound for the section-hands in the mound for the section-hands in the receipting fray and but for one had the morning fray, and but for one bad inning got along very nicely. The one bad inning was his undoing, however. It was the fifth inning, and the London players took a sudden liking to his slants, after two men were in the Inker. ss. morgue, and before the third man was Kading, expunged four runs had been chased McNels, 2 4 across the pan. The Saints scored one Gilspie, 3p in the sixth, but despite the fact that several opportunities presented them- Howick, p 3 0 1 0 2 Hamnd, p 2 0 0 1 selves, neither team was able to shove another counter over. Started Off Well in Afternoon.

The local hired hands got away to a good start in the first inning of the arst game in the afternoon. The Saints had gone out and made one run off Hammond in their half, but the Reisling outfit had Hughey up in the air in no time, and before the inning closed four runs had been registered. Most of our runs had been registered. hese runs were due to little infield hits. four of these hits were fielded by lughey. Some were bunts, and one— Hughey. Some were bunts, and one— Mike Mullin's drive—knocked Hughey down and turned him over, making a play at first base out of the question. The Saints tied it up by annexing three runs in the fourth inning. Hammond was wild, and besides hitting a couple of men, allowed four slashing bingles, and these resulted in three runs. That ended his work as far as London is concerned this season. He might have been able to finish without getting into any further trouble, but might have been able to hinsh without getting into any further trouble, but "Doc" decided to play it safe by sending in Heck, and it was just as well he did. With Heck on the mound the Saints were not very dangerous, and the locals seized some opportunities in the fourth, fifth and sixth to send igh runs across to give them a nice gin at the fluish. margin at the finish.

A Batfest in Second Game.

The final game of the afternoon was quite a performance. Twenty-four hits, most of them sure-enough ones, were sandwiched in the six and a half innings played, and that ought to satisfy the majority of critical fans. London got fourteen of these bingles, and nine got fourteen
