Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 28.—Wall street, 1:30 p.m.—Absorption of a block of 11,000 shares of Corn Products at 32%, a decline of %, paved the way for bullish operations in the stock, the price mounting later to 33%. Few changes of consequence occurred in the favorate speculative mediums apart from realizing in Chandler and United States Cast Iron Pipe. Union Bag dropped 8% to 44, a new low figure for the year, Anaconda Cop. Atchison

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 28.—Encouraging reports of mercantile expansion promoted funusual activity in this group but business elsewhere was restricted, due to the approach of a holiday. Sales in the first hour totalled only about 135,000 shares. An increase in freight car loadings to the largest aggregate of any week this year was taken as further evidence of an autumn trade revival, to which the merchandise issues responded.

Gains of two to almost five points were recorded by International Shoe, Woolworth, McCrory Stores "B," Kayser Silk preferred and Consolidated Cigar. General Electric extended its gain to three points and Rutland preferred to 4½, U. S. Steel sold at 168½, equivalent to 110, before deducting the dividend, leading an upward movement in other pivotal issues such as American Can, Baldwin, United States Cast Iron Pipe and Dupont.
