Yesterday was settling day is drygoods, but the volume of paper maturing was not large and little uneasiness was felt. According to the reports given by the houses payments have been fair. Some dissatisfaction is expressed, but the provailing experience is that the most for engagements has been up to expectations.
Favorable returns came in from manufacturing towns, but from rural districts they were not so estisfactory. From the latter a large number of resewants were asked for on the ground that the crops had not commenced to move.

The crop movement up to date has been behind that of last year, but indications poins to an increasing marketing of grain from now.
