A glance into the down-town saloons and quor houses did not reveal any astonishing ount of depression on account of the "sweeping victory for prohibition," over which the supporters of the plebiscite are now jubilating. As yet no vendor is making a wild scramble to get rid of his business at a ruinously low price. Whisky is still firm at 5 cents, and the demand is equal to the supply. The smile of the bartender is just as cheerful as it was a week ago, and he does not seem to be thinking darkly of looking for a job in some other "legiti-

we can recommend without reservation, regular price which can satisfy the Government that the people want prohibition. At least 75 per cent. of the people must show their willing ness to abide by a prohibitory law before it can be carried out. Personally, I have not considered it as having the slightest effect en my business. When the law says I must quit I am ready to do so, but I am in phyrry just now to dispose of my stock.

"The result of the plebiscite vote has not disturbed my slumbers," said W. J. Wilson of the firm of Purse & Wilson, Kingson of the firm of Purse & Wilson, King-street east. "The vote was not decisive. Many people who cast their ballots for pro-hibition did so with the hope that the Ontario Government would be put in a tight place. I have not regarded it as a measure of importance and the vote shows that thousands of others looked at it in the same light. I have not heard of anyone trying to get out of the business on account $1.65. of the result."

Effects of the plebiscite on our bus mess?" said Ed Sullivan, he of the "Leader," with a merry laugh. "Well, the prospect of prohibition seems to make men thirstier. That's the only effect I have noticed thus far. I do not think the measure of opinion was an entirely fair one, and know that a number of people voted 'Yes,' thinking they were voting against prohibition."

FATHER AND SON FIGHT.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 2.—Near Rockey Hill,
Barren County, while Willie Bishop was giving a party at his grandmother's, his father, Miller Bishop, who was drinking, wanted to turn the affair into a dance. Willie objected, and the father, securing a pistol, went out and fired on his son through emptied their pistols and drew knives, which they plunged into each other until they were separated. The father was shot three times and his throat was cut. Willie received several dangerous cuts, but will re-

London, Jan. 2.-[Telegram cable.]-The Westminster Gazette says the November report of the Grand Trunk is of a

The Financial Times says that the report is a record of unrelieved bad times, the confusion in management is continued, and in a foot note says that the Chicago and Grand Trunk expense account needs to be further adjusted and closed.

Some time ago President McKenzie and Mr. Davis, the electrical engineer, visited Chicago and inspected the large 5000 horse ower electric engine which was on exhi-ition at the World's Fair, with a view to purchasing it. Nothing definite was done then, but the matter has not altogether died out, and the engine may yet be pro cured, thus providing the company with power enough and to spare.

Cannot Be Beat.—Mr. D. Steinbach, Zurich, writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas" Eclectric Oil in my family for a number of years, and I can safely say that it cannot be beat for the cure of croup, fresh ents and sprains. My little boy has had attacks of croup several times and one dose of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was sufficient for a perfect cure. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a family medicine and I would not be without a bottle in my house.

Will Not Exclude the Psalter, The Toronto Presbytery at its meeting vesterday decided that selections from the Psalter should be incorporated in the new hymnal. Permission was given Ruth-street nymnal. Fermission was given Kuth-street congregation to erect a new church further south, but north of Queen-street. The after-election crowds througed the barrooms yesterday. They, if any, displayed the only evidences of prohibition's victory. The general opinion among liquor dealers is that the vote amounts to nothing. They say that the question was not one of prohibition and that a large portion of those who marked their ballots "Yes" did so wilfully and maliciously, with the expressides of putting the Ontario Government in a hole. The difference between the total vote polled and that cast on the plebiscie is an evidence of how little the people thought of it.

business is so bad that everybody engaged in it is down-hearted and more or less troubled in mind. The most discouraging feature of the situation is that there is no evidence of improvement in the immediate future, consequently we look for still lower prices for the grangers, trunk lines and fancy stocks like sugar, whisky and General Electric and other industrials.
