FIFTEENTH YEAR

MACWHERRELL TO HANG OCT. 1

THE MINISTER OF JUSTICE REFUSES A NEW TRIAL

Mr. John Thompson has gone over the evidence carefully and sees no reason why the murderer should be given another trial. Walker's trial to go on this month.

Walter MacWherrell, who brutally clubbed to death James Williams and his wife Eliza on the Middle-road, Toronto, on Dec. 14, 1893, will be hanged by the neck until he is dead in the courtyard of Brompton jail on Monday, Oct. 1.

Consent Attorney MacFadden on Saturday last received a telegram from the Deputy Minister of Justice, stating that Sir John Thompson had carefully gone over the evidence produced at the trial and the report of Mr. Justice Ferguson, the presiding judge, and saw no reason why a new trial should be granted.

The prisoner's counsel will now endeavor to secure a commutation of the sentence of MacWherrell to imprisonment for life, but there is a probability of his efforts being successful, as there ever was a view where the full penalty of the law should be meted out to a murderer, it should be carried into effect in the case of the murderer of the Williams couple, as a more brutal slaughter than that of the Middle-road has never been recorded in the criminal annals of Canada.

MacWherrell was originally sentenced to be hanged on August 1st, but Mr. E. Robinson, his counsel, secured a number of affidavits from witnesses who did not testify at the trial, and the Cabinet not having time to go into the merits of the case, owing to the fact that Parliament was in session, the case was referred to the provisions of section 937 of the Criminal Code, 1892, which provides that on Oct. 1, expressly providing that the statement given by him to the press that the prisoner was "Merely to give time for full consideration of the case" was for no purpose and to be drawn therefrom as to the ultimate decision.

Notwithstanding that the review was granted MacWherrell is to be hanged on Oct. 1, and it is believed that the review will be granted.

Had the Minister of Justice granted a new trial to MacWherrell he would have been tried jointly with Walker on Sept. 1st, but Mr. Justice Ferguson, who presided at the trial of James Williams, which opened at Brompton on Sept. 1st, has refused to try the case of MacWherrell as a separate trial.

Lord Brassey's letter infers that Jersey will support the Earl. Montreal, Sept. 8.—A Star special cable from London says: The letter of Lord Brassey to the Times today is making considerable of a stir here in circles of the aristocracy and the press. In the Atlantic liner, Lord Brassey, while not saying so directly, insinuates that the Earl of Jersey is still standing in the Imperial Government in favor of the Atlantic subsidy, basing his request on the discussion at the time of the project. The impression that the Earl had not recommended has been prevalent here among those interested for some few days. Now the assumption of Lord Brassey makes this feeling more of a certainty. Lord Brassey points out that when the Imperial Government shall have paid £75,000 subsidy, Australia must contribute £20,000 and Canada £10,000 on the respective Pacific and Atlantic services. His Lordship is an ex-member of the Home Office, and his endorsement of Mr. Huddart's scheme has drawn still more attention to the matter.

WANT AN OWNER.

A Sail Boat Comes Ashore at the Foot of James Avenue.

An 18-foot sailboat is ashore at the foot of James Avenue, and the police are anxious to find an owner for the boat. The boat was first seen the morning after the boat-houses in the vicinity were noted by alleged vandals. It bears no name and is not owned in Toronto or immediate vicinity. The craft contained a new sail and pair of oars, and a second pair of oars was found concealed under a pier at the foot of Dundas street. The boat has either been drifted or been stolen, the police inclining to the latter idea.

G.O.R. Church Parade.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat, the Queen's Own Regimental parade Sunday afternoon was attended by thousands of people. The route was along King and Sherbourne streets to All Saints Church, where nearly 600 members of the Q.O.R. attended divine service, conducted by Rev. A. H. Baldwin, rector of the church. Mr. Baldwin delivered an interesting and impressive sermon. The regiment returned in the evening, Young and King streets. Mayor Kennedy alighted from his cab at the church shortly before the volunteers drew up.

Alleged Fugitive Banned.

On Saturday evening a squad of police, headed by Inspector Stephen, visited an alleged gambling room in the Rossmore building, King-street west, and a place of similar reputation on Toronto street, and took the names of those found there. When the raid was made at King-street, a young man jumped from a second-story window for water months and sustained internal injuries.

TOBACCONIST GLOVER RUNS AFTER A BURGLAR CLOTHED UP IN HIS NIGHT SHIRT.

But Misses His Quarry

A few minutes before 6 o'clock Sunday morning James Glover, tobacconist, 205 Queen-street east, was aroused by a noise in his store, feeling quietly down stairs, he saw a burglar disappearing through the open front door. The burglar had filled his valise with cigars and passed it out to a companion who was doing his best to follow the valise when Glover appeared on the scene.

Glover followed the thieves for some distance in his nightshirt along Ontario-street, shouting "Police" and "Burglars," as loud as his lungs would allow. No police appeared, and giving up the chase, Glover returned to Queen-street, where his wife was waiting with a quantity of clothing for him. After donning these, he searched out a police officer, but the burglar had long since disappeared with his booty.

LAD HIM OUT WITH A MALLET.

Two Sergeants of the Field Battery Enrage a Cow Which May Have Serious Results.

At 10 o'clock Saturday evening Charles Wildfield and John Smith, sergeants in the Toronto Field Battery, were involved in a quarrel with a cow in the rear of a house. Smith seized a large wooden mallet and dealt the cow several blows on the ribs and inflicting serious internal injuries. Wildfield was sent to the general hospital, where he is in a precarious condition. Smith may be put under arrest.

FOR FAIR VISITORS.

A Well-Known Establishment Has Something New to Offer.

Visitors to the Exhibition, and especially those of the fair sex, will be interested to know that the new establishment will be held each day this week in the handsome fur show rooms of W. & D. Dineen on the corner of King and Yonge streets.

This celebrated fair is prepared to receive all visitors between the hours of 9 a. m. and 10 p. m., and display the new London and Paris styles in furs, as well as the latest American and European hats.

W. & D. Dineen make no exhibit at the fair, but it is hardly necessary for them to do so, as every well-informed visitor who wishes to purchase hats or furs will call at the big store on the corner.

Since the Fair was opened the number of strangers who call at Dineen's has far exceeded the record for the same week last year, and the fair will be closed at the end of the week.

This week preparations have been made for an enormous trade, and no matter how large the crowd of visitors every article will be promptly and attentively served.

No other firm has the same prestige as W. & D. Dineen. Hats and furs being that name are guaranteed for style and quality.

LIGOR AT THE FAIR.

Officers seize a large supply of whiskey and beer.

While patrolling the Exhibition grounds Sunday morning Inspector Hill noticed a wagon containing some suspicious-looking articles, and he proceeded to search the contents of the wagon, and found a large quantity of liquor, including whiskey and beer.

The liquor was confiscated, and the wagon was impounded.

Be Careful in Drinking.

We again impress upon our readers the necessity of drinking upon East Kent. No other brand can lay claim to the high qualities that have made Holliday's famous brand so popular with discerning patrons.

Mr. Algie's Address.

With a meeting in St. Lawrence Hall last night the Canadian Secular Union closed their annual convention. Addressed were by William Algie, Esq., Alton; Captain E. C. Adams, Montreal; George Moffatt, ex-Mayor of Orillia; and David Lomax.

Mr. Algie made a strong and eloquent speech. One of his epigrammatic sayings was:

"Men are more widely separated by the Atlantic Ocean than they are by the Atlantic Ocean. We have no need for the Atlantic Ocean."

There is a large number of men in this world who advocate temperance for the sake of the present liquor traffic, and who think that man who does not appreciate the evils of the present liquor traffic, is a moralist, and a champion of legislation. I am of the opinion that if this city would throw open its art galleries, its museums, its parks, and give men and women the opportunity to see and feel the beauties of the world, there would be no so much drinking.

Accidental Death at Brayton.

Drayton, Ont., Sept. 8.—Lying under instructions from Crown Attorney Peterson of Guelph, Coroner Forrester of Palmerston, opened an inquest here on the body of Steele Hughes, who was killed near Holden last week at a barn raising. The charge was negligence, but the jury found that death was accidental and absolved the contractor from blame.

Detective Watson is Still Busy.

Detective Watson has secured sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of an Indian woman, Ellen Lafrance, in Ottawa, charged with practicing medicine without a license. It is said that Philip O'Meara of Hintonburg died shortly after taking medicine which he bought from the squaw.

IRISH OPINION IS DIVIDED

REGARDING THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE HARRISON'S GOLD.

The Begging Circular and Gifts From the Liberal Leaders Cause Discontent—Royal Staff Tenders At a Church Bazaar—Labor Leaders and Socialists.

London, Sept. 8.—The explanations of Justin McCarthy and John Dillon in regard to the circular issued in the name of the Irish party appealing for funds have the Holydays greatly dissatisfied as ever. The Executive Committee of the Irish National League of Great Britain assume the responsibility for the issuance of the circular, but flatly deny that they forwarded a copy of the letter to Mr. Gladstone or any member of the Ministry. Taking this denial for what it is worth, it is inexplicable in the face of the now well-known fact that 12,000 copies of the circular were distributed in the name of the Irish party.

The event assumes the proportions of a matter of first importance as assisting Tim Healy to exercise control of the next meeting of the Irish party when the matter of accepting a gift of £10,000 from the Ministry of the Crown will be acted upon. Mr. McCarthy is certainly not retiring from the presidency of the party, and Healy apparently has it in his power to name a successor if not to assume the office himself.

Section and Davitt Differ.

Mr. Section maintains a discreet silence in regard to the new turn of affairs, and the belief is becoming general that his silence is due to the fact that he has discovered, as everybody else has, that he compromised himself by his assertion in the course of debate in the House of Commons that neither to the Government nor to any wealthy English partisan of the Home Rule cause had he any objection to any Irish party being indebted for a penny, nor will any of them ever be. This declaration in the House of Commons, Mr. Section is, no doubt, ashamed of, and his positive avowal, in view of the subsequent developments, Michael Davitt, however, strikes a different note, and warmly defends the acceptance of the contributions of Mr. Gladstone and Lord Tweedmouth, and the £10,000, which he says is his own money, and that he has no objection to the receipt and application of funds from any other source.

This week preparations have been made for an enormous trade, and no matter how large the crowd of visitors every article will be promptly and attentively served.

Healy Retires the Best.

Mr. Healy's suggestion that the contributions of Mr. Gladstone and Lord Tweedmouth be returned to the Government is ridiculed by Mr. Davitt, who says his loss is not a matter of regret, but that he would not hesitate to accept any man's money. The present object is that the spirit of the whole party will be the triumph of Healy, temporary though it may be.

Many Illnesses Visited by Lightning.

Rosford, Ill., Sept. 8.—The town of Rosford, near here, was damaged by fire on Saturday night, and the loss was estimated at $20,000. The fire was caused by lightning striking a barn, which was situated in the village of Rosford. The fire spread rapidly, and destroyed a large number of buildings, including a school house, a church, and several private residences.

GAVE PARDON WITH HIS BLOOD.

STRANGE SUICIDE OF A RUSSIAN HEBREW.

Found Dangling To a Sapling in the Woods Northeast of Moore Park—Thought He Should Repeat the Sacrifice of Christ With Himself as the Victim.

While cutting poles on Saturday afternoon in a thick bush north-east of Moore Park, and a little south of the Belt Line Railway, Jacob Arnold, 187 Eastern-avenue, saw the body of a man dangling from a tree. He drove to the city and notified the police of No. 5 Station, who in turn, telephoned County Coroner Armstrong.

Arnold was, through some oversight, permitted to go to his home, and accompanied by a World reporter, County Constables Francis and Edwards, with a search party, the body was found in a grove of trees, and was found to be that of a man who had committed suicide.

The man was found to be a Russian Hebrew, and was named as being living for six weeks past at May's lodging house, 145 York-street, and a professional photographer by name, who had secured a living by selling picture frames.

Other documents found among his effects led to the belief that the man had been a wandering pedlar, and had come to this city from Buffalo. He had also been in the city of Buffalo, and had secured a living by selling picture frames.
