Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.
—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only.

Many thousands of cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail.
Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as she has been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

fishermen.

While adjusting the curtains Mrs. W.
H. Pratt, of Petrolia, fell off a chair and broke her arm.

"MAY I call you Mabel?" he asked at their second meeting, pretending to be badly smitten. "If you wish to; but my name is Gertrude."

FUR trappers in the north are predicting an open winter. The way they tell is by the whiskers of the natives, which are not as thick as usual this season.

TEACHER—How long had Washington been dead when Roosevelt was inaugurated? Scholar—I dunno, but it hasn't been very dead since Teddy has been there!

Do you think cabbage is unwholesome? asked the dyspeptic. "It depends some-whether you eat it or try to smoke it."

DATES have been fixed for the Glencoe home-coming and old boy's reunion next summer. They are Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 29th, 30th and 31st.

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator does not require the help of any purgative medicine to complete the cure. Give it a trial and be convinced.

It is again rumored that the C.P.R. will extend their line west next summer, and that Strathroy will be one of the towns through which the extension will pass.

MABEL (aged six)—Ain't you afraid of our big dog? The Parson (very thin)— No, my dear. He would not make much of a meal off me. Mabel—Oh, but he likes bones best.

WEST LORNE and Rodney are seeking that the by-law will carry in the township of Aldborough, in which both villages are now situated.

MIKE had only recently been made foreman of the section, but he knew the respect due his rank. "Finnegan," he said to an argumentative assistant, "I'll have nawthing out of you but silence —and mighty little of that."

"No," said the moss-covered alleged business man, "I cannot afford to; advertise. If I did, more customers would come, and I would have to hire more clerks to wait on them, and I cannot afford this additional expense.

THE boats on the great lakes have not suffered this season as much as former autumns from gale storms. So far the lakes have been very quiet, and the only bad accident was the wrecking of the steamer Nimick on Lake Superior.

THE proud New York hotelkeeper no longer insists on the coin of the country from the stranger in his midst. He has become so reasonable that he will actually trade a sirlon steak for a dollar and a quarter in Canadian money.

HON. NELSON MONTEITH, minister of agriculture, gives it as his opinion that horticulture is soon to take a very decided step forward in this province. The hope is expressed that the time will come when municipalities will pay greater attention to landscape architecture and employ competent men for the work.

THE 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Pearce, of Brooke, who was seriously burned some time ago while playing around a fire in a barnyard, succumbed to her injuries last Friday, after intense suffering. The remains were laid to rest in the Alvinston cemetery last Monday. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

A SMOOTH salesman is taking subscriptions about town for a map of the Dominion. The price is small, $1.25, and it may be that the article will be O.K. but the salesman goes a little beyond the limit when he tries to create the impression he is some kind of an agent of the government geographical department when he only represents a Hamilton concern.—Petrolia Advertiser.

JUST as like as not your wife feels awfully poor because you carry the purse and do not give her a fair show. She may want to make a few presents at Christmas and can not even do that.
You mean all well, no doubt, but do be a little more thoughtful. She has helped you earn the money. She has saved you hundreds of dollars. She only asks for a little justice—not generosity.

Miss Clara J. O'Neill died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. James J. Lyne, on Thursday, Nov. 14. Miss O'Neill had been in poor health for some months, but the termination of her illness was a great shock to her many friends. She was born in Toronto, but lived from childhood in Port Huron. Miss O'Neill was the daughter of the late Peter J. O'Neill one of Port Huron's most prominent merchants.

THE deed to the supreme tent, Knights of the Maccabees of the World, of the Smith Mansion, Detroit, has been recorded, and shows that the consideration was $50,000. That the Maccabees made a good bargain in buying this property is generally conceded. It has been authoritatively stated that the building alone cost $85,000, not counting the value of the grounds.

AN interesting feature of the financial situation is that the latest English newspapers to hand contain a column of advertisements from the principal banks of the United Kingdom notifying depositors that the interest allowed on deposits has been increased to four, and in some cases to four and a quarter, per cent. The normal rate of bank interest in England is 3 per cent. Deposits at call are now 4, and at 7 to 14 days notice 4 1/2.

LAWYERS stand up in court houses before judges and jurors, in the presence sometimes of large audiences and denounce men as liars, scoundrels, thieves and perjured villains, and when court adjourns, the men appear to bear no ill will against them. But let a newspaper only faintly intimate that a man's character is blemished, and he has to confront a horse pistol, stand a libel suit, or suffer what the people think to be the greatest of all mortifications—lose a subscriber.

A WOMAN rushed into a telegraph office the other day, says an exchange, and informed the operator that her husband had gone to New York to get a banner for the Sunday school, but she had forgotten to tell him the inscription and how large the banner was to be. She wrote a telegram containing the needed information. It read—"My dear Frank, Savoy Hotel, New Hotel, New York City: "Unto us a child is born, eight feet long and two feet wide." The husband is in the city, and it is rumored, he isn't going back.

Boyd Must Hang on January 8.

Toronto, Nov. 12.—John Boyd, the colored porter, who on July 11 last shot and killed Edward F. Wandle, a colored restaurant keeper, in the latter's place on York street, was found guilty of murder this morning, and was sentenced by Mr.
Justice Macmahon to be hanged on Jan.
8. The murder was a most cold-blooded and premeditated one. Boyd called at Wandle's restaurant on the morning of July 11 looking for a woman named Mrs.
Naomi Carr, with whom he had been living, and was put out of the restaurant by Wandle. Boyd went away, purchased a revolver, and a box of cartridges, and returned in the afternoon to the restaurant. Wandle was upstairs and Boyd followed him from room to room, until he finally found him in a bedroom, where he deliberately shot him dead.

The Case Against G.T.E. is Dropped.

As a result of the death of Mrs. Adeline Robertson recently, an action which was about to be begun by Meredith, Fisher & McDonald against the G. T. R. for the death of Mrs. Robertson's husband, who was killed at Newbury by a boiler explosion, has been dropped.

According to the law no action can be entered in the case of a married man except on behalf of the wife or children of the deceased.

Mrs. Robertson had no children.

PANDORA RANGE
A convenience much appreciated by every owner of a Pandora is the towel rod attached to the range. As one-third of the rod is made of emery, it makes a splendid knife sharpener, too. It's always there handy for you. You need waste no time hunting around for the easily misplaced "steel." Bright idea, eh?

An accurate thermometer is a reliable guide to successful baking, while an inaccurate one is a "cheat" of the worst kind.
Every Pandora thermometer is carefully adjusted and undergoes a practical test by heat—is proven correct before being sent out. The figures, which show the required degree of heat necessary for the successful baking of bread, cakes, pies, etc., are plainly inscribed in black on a white enamel surface, so that they are easily readable, even when the day is dull. If your local dealer does not sell the Pandora, write direct for free booklet.
