

QUEBEC:

PICTURESQUE AND DESCRIPTIVE.

VIEW FROM THE OLD MANOR HOUSE AT BEAUPORT.

QUEBEC—the spot where the most refined civilization of the Old World first touched the barbaric wildness of the New—is also the spot where the largest share of the picturesque and romantic element has gathered round the outlines of a grand though rugged nature. It would seem as if those early heroes, the flower of France's chivalry,