

MISSISQUOI comes from: Masipskoik, (Abenakis), where there is flint.

MOOSEHEAD LAKE is called in Abenakis: Mozodupi Nebes, which is the literal meaning of the English name.

MANAWAN (Lake), eggs gathering place. In fact, that lake being the resort of gulls and loons, the hunters use to gather lots of eggs around the little islands.

NASHUA is said to mean : between (the rivers). Between is expressed in Abenakis by : nsawi, nsawiwi or nansawiwi.

NIKATTEGW or Nikôntegw, (Abenakis), means : first branch, or again, the outrunning stream or river. This is the Indian name of a channal, at the lower end of the Abenakis Indian Reserve of St-Francis called by the French people "Chenal Tardif."

NIAGARA, probably from, Ohniara, (Iroquois), the neck (connecting Lake Erie with Lake Ontario).

NAMAGWÔTTIK, (Abenakis), place abounding in lake trout. (See Megantic).

O'BAMAS, a term by which the Abenakis Indians designate the "Rivière du Loup" (en haut), means : opposite course or winding. This name has been given on account of the great winding which commences a little below Hunters town Mills. See plan of the St-Maurice Territory, published in 1857.
