From Mr Daniel Murphy, Antigonish, for support of Mr Geddie's children.

JAMES BAYNE.

Editor's Notes.

The publication of the first number of the Record has been delayed for a week with the hope of obtaining a supply of thicker paper which the Publisher ordered from Boston. The paper has not yet arrived; and upon consultation with the Committee it was thought better to take the best paper to be had in the city now than to delay any longer. The paper used in this number is good, white and strong, but lighter and thinner than what is to be used in succeeding numbers.

Owing to the great amount of space devoted to Our Foreign Missions in the present number, there is not so much variety in the contents as might perhaps be desirable. We intend to introduce a department for review of new books in next number, immediately after the Editorial matter. We shall also furnish a monthly summary of religious intelligence. Several pages may be devoted to correspondence. The news, foreign and domestic, of our own Church must take precedence of all other matter; but our space will frequently permit us to give a good deal of missionary intelligence of other Churches and Societies.

CORRESPONDENCE.

All correspondence and notices intended for the next number of the Record should be in our hands by the 20th of this month. We have very respectfully to urge upon Clerks of Presbyteries and others to send us promptly whatever intelligence may be interesting and useful to the Church.

EXCHANGES.

Periodicals that heretofore exchanged with the Christian Instructor are requested to be forwarded to Rev. George Patterson, Green Hill, Pictou. Books, also, intended for review in the Record may be sent to the same address.
