No definite cause has yet been discovered for the disease; but Mr. Tennant says it may be Tennant thinks that now the warm spell is over, no spread of the disease need be antici pated. There has been no fresh outbreak Au during the past couple of days, and it is to be hoped the epidemic has now run its course. There is no cause for further apprehension; but should the symptoms detailed by any horse owner, it will be to his interest to at once acquaint a veterinary surgeon of its outbreak, as it is believed that 1- Dr Walton and the Rev. Mr. Hazlerwood two horses were saved last week in conse the returning to the city from a yachting cruise, quence of early aid being given them. BOSTON SEPTEMBER 14th, 1877.

which you will see that we are making a novel action gun, and we think the best in the market, and wishing to sell the best Implements to go with it, I request that you will send me prices of your carfridge closers, extractors, and all other implements which you make for Breech Loading Guns. I saw your Implements at Mr. H.C. Squire's in New York, and think them ahead of any other make.

Yours Respectfully, AM. ARMS CO.

The following Premiums have been awarded me at the Provincial Exhibition this season; its prize for best assortment of Firearms; 1st prize for Breech-loading Gun Implements; 1st prize for Rawbone's Patent Combined Hand Turnover Cart Extractor and Rammer Combined. I have recently received Grand Medal and Deploma of Honor from the Australian Exhibition, for Breech-Loading Gun Implements
