PETROLEUM.

From Petrolia, this week, the crude oil market is reported firm at $2.05 in tank. Refined is quoted at 25 cents in car load lots, with prospects of increase in value. The refineries are running to their utmost capacity to supply the demand. Holders of crude are confident of further appreciation in the value of their product and are holding fast to their stocks. Drillers are at a loss to fill the contracts rushed upon them by the late boom in prices. It has been estimated that during the nine months ending Oct. 1st, there were drilled in the district 325 wells, of which 67 were dry holes.

An Ottawa gentleman has in his possession a fine specimen of silver ore, found about forty miles from that city. He intends shortly taking steps to open up the mine.
