I have secured a lot of these stamps from persons who knew nothing of their philatelic value and am thus enabled to sell them cheap 30 percent discount on orders for $5.00 or more.

Send postage stamps or paper money in common sealed letter and I will guarantee safe delivery. Send at once before all are gone.

Review.

All pamphlets, catalogues, etc., is well reviewed in this column.

Mr. S. B. Bradt has sent us a number of price lists of stamp albums, stamp story, etc. Mr. Bradt is one of the few dealers who devote their entire time and attention to philately. See advertisement on another page.

From Ontario Stamp Co. we have received a complete set of merchants' flags of the world, coat of arms of the world and portrait of rulers. The sets are just what every collector should have. Spaces are provided for them in albums. Price for the three sets, $1.00. See ad.

Through the kindness of Mr. Ketcheson, (President of the C. P. A.), we have received a copy of his Standard catalogue of Canada stamps. It is a neat and well printed catalogue and should be in the hands of every collector of Canadian stamps. Price of catalogue 10 cents. Address this office.

Correspondence.

Can anyone inform me the proper way to pronounce the word P-h-i-l-a-t-e-l-i-s-t, and can any of the readers tell me the meaning of the above word, and is it an English word? Yours, H. L. C.

Can any of the readers of the "Canadian Philatelist" inform me where those Canadian College stamps were first issued and for what purpose they were used, and how many varieties were issued, and who issued them. Very truly,

G. A. B.

Queries.

All questions etc., asked without inclosing stamp for return postage will be answered in this column.

MR. EDITOR:—Is Mr. H. E. French the owner of the "Canadian Philatelist." H. F. C., Phila., Pa.

Well if it concerns anyone besides ourselves, we would say that Mr. F. does not own the C. P., but he sometimes assists in the mailing, etc. It was circulated that Mr. F was the publisher but it is false. Mr. Hast had better find out the truth before he strings such yarns, as he is the originator. EDITOR OF C P.:

Sir,—Will you please tell me what paper is going to fill the subscription list of the N. F. P?

We do not know what paper will fill them, or whether they ever will be filled or not. Come publisher, let us hear from you. A. V. B., Brooklyn, N. Y.

What is the difference between wove and laid paper? How can I tell the difference? J. E. S.

A STAMP DIRECTORY.

I will soon publish a Stamp Directory of Canadian Collection only, and I wish every Collector to send his address on a postal card with the names and addresses of all Stamp collectors who may not see this paper.
