of our youngest, as he appeared recently, after having dropped out of his high chair on to the floor, very solid. We rubbed the afflicted parts thoroughly with St. Jacobs Oil, and he was soon put right again, and is now the joy and hope of our lives.

We shouldn't think, however, of being without St. Jacobs Oil in the house, not only on account of the Baby, who frequently receives knocks and scratches, but on account of the Rheumatic aches and pains, which we sometimes have.

We find that St. Jacobs Oil removes all these like magic—in fact, it is thoroughly a Household Remedy, and it is a household word, that St. Jacobs Oil "Conquers Pain."

MISCELLANEOUS

Help from without is often enfeebling in its effects, but help from within invariably invigorates.—Southey.

Narrowness of mind is often the cause of obstinacy; we do not easily believe beyond what we can see.—Rochefoucauld.

To thine ownself be true, and it will follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man.—Shakespeare.

Fifty thousand Christians of the tobacco growing district of Latakiah have suddenly gone over to the Mohammedan faith. The Sultan is delighted.

Some men use no other means to acquire respect than by insisting upon it; and it sometimes answers their purpose, as it does a highwayman's in regard to money.—Shenstone.

The heirs of the elder Dumas still have an income of about $7,000 a year from the sale of his novels. Of his 300 books the most popular are "The Three Musketeers" and "Monte Cristo."

Never let any man imagine that he can pursue a good end by evil means, without sinning against his own soul! Any other issue is doubtful; the evil effect on himself is certain.—Southey.

The whole faculties of man must be exerted in order to call forth noble energies; and he who is not earnestly sincere lives in but half his being, self-mutilated, self-paralyzed.—Coleridge.

The Missouri muskrat is building his domicile with unusual care this season, and the groundhog is making his subterranean galleries deeper than ever, all of which betokens a winter of unprecedented severity.

A man never has trouble in finding trouble, nor does he have any trouble in finding Esterbrook's pens, for all the stationers keep them.

No improvement that takes place in either sex can possibly be confined to itself. Each is a universal mirror to each, and the respective refinement of the one will always be in a reciprocal proportion to the polish of the other.—Colton.

Scrofula eradicated and all kindred diseases cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its vitalizing and alterative effects, makes pure blood.

The "Christian Inquirer," of New York, thinks that the World's Parliament of Religions is "the most singular and grotesque" collection of "rattle-headed doctors, creeds and cranks that ever shook hands over the chasm of unbelief," and compares favourably with the 'Hindu orgies of the Plaisance.'

FOR SEVERE COLDS.

GENTLEMEN,—I had a severe cold, for which I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I find it an excellent remedy, giving prompt relief and pleasant to take.

J. PAYNTER, Huntsville, Ont.

As to the healthfulness of going without shoes or stockings, there can, says the "London Hospital," be no question. Some of the healthiest children of the world are to be found in the Scottish Highlands, where shoes are seldom worn at an earlier age than 12 or 13. The negro and coolie labourers who work barefooted, are usually in robust health.

BEYOND DISPUTE.

There is no better, safer or more pleasant cough remedy made than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It cures hoarseness, sore throat, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles.

It is not alone in theology that Christ is all or nothing. He is supreme everywhere, or He is nothing; supreme in business, in politics, in society, in law, in education, everywhere. Men are not wanting whom the world calls respectable citizens and who perhaps are called Christians, who smile incredulously when they are told that Christ should rule in the counting-room, in the workshop, in the courts. But what is Christ? Is He a figure of speech? Is He a theological expression? Is He a sentiment? Or is He a real living being, ruling over the hearts of men according to the law and standard which He has illustrated in His own life? Christ is all in all in everything, or He is nothing, a delusion.—National Baptist.

PREVENTION IS BETTER

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg, from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."

DEAR SIR,—I have suffered greatly from constipation and indigestion, but by the use of B.B.B. I am now restored to health. I cannot praise Burdock Blood Bitters too highly; it is the most excellent remedy I ever used.

MISS AGNES J. LAFONN, Hagersville, Ont.

The cost of a medical education, according to the Hospital, is, in London, $400 to $500 per year, for five years, plus $700 to $1,000 in fees, making a total of $2,700 to $3,500. In this city it would be $600 a year for three years, and $300 for fees as a minimum estimate.—New York Medical record.
